been pissing himself about Roger Nair for weeks now. He wakes up from his drunken stupor with that name in his head -every- day.

The funny part is I look nothing at all like Roger, and doug would remember that if his brain wasn't pickled from the daily booze binge that is his life. Afterall he did point a bb gun in my face. He appeared to be more concerned about ducking from my camera than his aim at the time, as I recall.

So you say.
There are actually more online reports of YOUR ALCOHOLISM this his. Your neighbors complain you get on the mic after guzzling 12 beers in an hour and scream obscenities....
your signal bleeds into their AM reception.

Expect the FCC to show up in due time.

> The funny part is I look nothing at all like Roger...

You weren't anywhere near him, not even within 500 feet,
for him to point anything at your face, chicken shit.
You stood behind a tree, having trespassed on his property, to snap your pic.

> He appeared to be more concerned about ducking from my

He was afraid you were shooting at him with a gun.
You unduly frightened him, causing him grave harm and trauma. He hasn't been well since them. You're lucky he hasn't reported you to the local cops.

Gay diatribe?
You're right. Nair would do nothing of the sort.
But we both know Mopey has done that. Mopey's annual bottom line is also nowhere near Nair's. Mopey just ditched his snowplow business because he had to work too hard.

> Why do you say sorry mope? You helped destroy this place

Mopey is the MAIN CULPRIT in destroying at least 2 newsgroups. Everyone (including Mopey's pals) knows it.

Many of your lawn customers have cut back this season because of the downturn in the economy. You're revenues

As for 'successful'... in business terms, you're just a

Those that need no answering are anything a keyclown asks. You fag keyclowns know who you are. AKC completely controld this NG and you Have you ever met Roger Nair?

How do you know Roger Nair is moparholic?

Moparholic came over your house and kicked your ass.
And you can't prove who moparholic is.

If Roger Nair is moparholic, why haven't you gone over his house to make sure? No balls?

Yes I did. In fact, I remember the very first post I made in this 100mW walkie talkie you piece of shit", or something like that....... oh wait, that was -your- first post and it was to -me-. Well, I guess for some people, reality only depends upon your state of mind.

A very good job, thank you very much. Made good money and a few smart investments (it helped to see the financial collapse approaching), and now I am retired at 45. Actually, I'm just semi-retired since I still have my home biz. But since the work is actually fun I don't consider it a job.

So how -you- doin', mope?

off-topic spam...... so yep, I have indeed read all five messages.

Summers Says U.S. 'Close to a Level Path' to Recovery (Update1)

GOOD GOD!!!!!!!

HORROR OF HORRORS ARE WE STILL IN THE DOUBLE SPEAK OF THE BUSH ADMINISTRATION?!!!!!

By Timothy R. Homan and Alison Sider

July 17 (Bloomberg) -- The U.S. economy shows early signs of emerging from the recession as $787 billion in stimulus lays a foundation for a sustained recovery, said Lawrence Summers, director of the White House's National Economic Council.

"While employment continues to contract, the available indicators suggest that GDP is on close to a level path with prospects for positive growth to commence during this year," he said in a speech today in Washington. "Confidence and hope are returning as a program of rebuilding the economy moves forward."

Summers joined a chorus of Obama administration officials who have tried in recent weeks to counter calls for another round of fiscal stimulus. The former Treasury secretary and Harvard University president said the government is committed to keeping stimulus in place no longer than necessary to revive the economy.

In his speech, Summers predicted unemployment in the U.S. would likely keep rising in coming months, and he didn't explicitly address the prospect of a second federal effort to stimulate economic growth. He cited an administration study that projected only 10 percent of the job impact from the current stimulus would occur in 2009.

Summers also declined to comment on Federal Reserve policy and he downplayed the near-term threat of inflation. He said the Obama administration would support measures that enhance the "transparency" of the Fed and oppose any effort in Congress to restrict the central bank's independence.

Job Losses

In his review of the economy, Summers said the spread of joblessness "is obviously a major area of concern."

"But contrary to a significant amount of commentary, this does not provide a basis for concluding that the Recovery Act is falling short of its goals," he said. Given lags in spending and hiring, "the peak impact of the stimulus on jobs was expected to be achieved at the end of 2010."

Jared Bernstein, Vice President Joe Biden's chief economic adviser, yesterday said, "It's a good thing that this recovery act is a two-year plan," adding that this "is not a recession that's going to be solved in weeks or months."

Treasury Secretary Timothy Geithner made similar remarks yesterday and said it's too early to judge whether additional fiscal priming is needed.

Options Open

When asked yesterday about the potential for a second stimulus, White House Press Secretary Robert Gibbs said Obama is leaving his options open.

"He hasn't ruled anything in, he hasn't ruled anything out," Gibbs said.

Summers pointed to progress in the American economy in the past six months, saying business and consumer sentiment has improved. The Reuters/University of Michigan preliminary index of consumer confidence last week fell more than forecast after four months of gains.

"We were at the brink of catastrophe at the beginning of the year but we have walked some substantial distance back from the abyss," he said. "Substantial progress has been made in rescuing the economy from the risk of economic collapse that looked all too real six months ago."

The future of U.S. growth will depend on a "more export- oriented and less consumption-oriented" economy, Summers said. U.S. exports in May rose the most since July 2008, while retail sales that same month increased the most since January.

Growth will average 1.5 percent in the July-to-December period, helped by stabilization in consumer spending, which accounts for about 70 percent of the economy, a Bloomberg News survey this month showed.

Nouriel Roubini, the New York University economist who predicted the financial crisis, said yesterday that the U.S. economy may pull out of the recession by the end of the year and a second stimulus would help broaden the recovery. Roubini said in a speech in New York that a spending package may be needed by late 2009 or 2010 totaling as much as $250 billion.

out more during our paid vacations so I took the plunge. It's a 97 so it needs some spit and polish but none the less it should be fun. BTW, do you

There's no apostrophe after Steves.
Learn correct English grammar, moron.

Now square this with your self-serving nice guy declaration:

the trash you post here tells the real story about you.

that's why you have it "hauled away" with blocking filters.

you're in denial, and can't face the truth about yourself.

the problem for you is that everyone else on usenet knows who you are and what you're like.... and no amount of "nice guy" declarations, or whatever other self-serving crap you post, will ever repair that.

you're a low life redneck loser with a ng tuff guy act,
and everyone knows it.

now quick, go change servers, and post some gay stuff.

Two rednecks, Steveo and Drew Bee, decided that they weren't going anywhere in life and thought they should go to college to get ahead.

Drew Bee goes in first, and the professor advises him to take math, history and logic.

"What's logic?" asked Drew Bee.

The professor answered, "Let me give you an example. Do you own a weed-whacker?"

"I sure do," answered the redneck.

"Then I can assume, using logic, that you have a yard," replied the professor.

"That's real good," the redneck responded in awe.

The professor continued, "Logic will also tell me that since you have a yard, you also have a house."

Impressed, the redneck shouted, "AMAZIN'!"

"And since you own a house, logic dictates that you have a wife."

"Betty Mae! This is incredible!"

"Finally, since you have a wife, logically I can assume that you are heterosexual," said the professor.

"You're absolutely right! Why, that's the most fascinatin' thing I ever heard of! I cain't wait to take this here logic class."

Drew Bee, proud of the new world opening up to him, walked back into the hallway where Steveo is still waiting.

"So, what classes are ya takin?" he asks.

"Math, history and logic," replies Drew Bee.

Steveo says, "What in tarnation is logic?"

"Let me give you an example. Do ya own a weed-eater?"

"No."

"You're a queer, ain't ya?"

Mopey Steve wrote:
> Hey Drew shoot me an email, you too BT. (it's me)

Mopey died in a fire and his body was burned pretty badly. The morgue needed someone to identify the body, so they sent for his two best friends, DrooBee and BeeTee. The three men had always done everything together.

DrooBee arrived first, and when the mortician pulled back the sheet, DrooBee said, "Yup, his face is burnt up pretty bad. You better roll him over."

The mortician rolled him over, and DrooBee said, "Nope, ain't Mopey."

The mortician thought that was rather strange.

Then he brought BeeTee in to identify the body. BeeTee took a look at the body and said, "Yup, he's pretty well burnt up. Roll him over."

The mortician rolled him over and BeeTee said, "No, it ain't Mopey."

The mortician asked, "How can you tell?"

BeeTee said, "Well, Mopey had two assholes."

"What? He had two assholes?!" said the mortician.

"Yup, everyone knew he had two assholes. Every time we went to town, folks would say, 'Here comes Mopey with them two assholes.'"

At an estate sale at a huge house this past weekend I picked up a small trailer load of stuff, included in this was a like new unmodified Cobra 2000 GTL,with two matching speakers, and a Cobra CA61 desk mic. What do you think this combo is worth? It looks like it has never been out of the box until I opened it and took it out. It seems to work, heard some activity on Channel 19.

Is it really just that simple??? I dont think so. SOme of what you said is correct however it is really quite disturbing that someone would continue this keydown hatred this long? I mean someone already pointed it out that this has been going on since like 1997 or so... I

Speaking of credibility, last time I was there I waited in the parking lot for well over an hour so you could beat me "like a red-headed stepchild" but you never showed.

Don't feel bad -- it's hardly the first time some shit-talking CBer backed out of a face-2-face. Happens all the time. Maybe someday your doctor will prescribe hormone replacement therapy and -then- maybe you'll finally be able to walk the walk.

Until then, I wish you well as you fulfill your dream of being the

Toodles.

This guy was on C-span Books today. Fascinating concept, It is Semi Fiction. EMP is real, the story is fiction, set 1 second after a nuclear device sends out an electro-magnetic pulse....and the world goes quiet...

New York Times best selling author William R. Forstchen now brings us a story which can be all too terrifyingly real...a story in which one man struggles to save his family and his small North Carolina town after America loses a war, in one second, a war that will send America back to the Dark Ages...A war based upon a weapon, an Electro Magnetic Pulse (EMP). A weapon that may already be in the hands of our enemies.

Months before publication, One Second After has already been cited on the floor of Congress as a book all Americans should read, a book already being discussed in the corridors of the Pentagon as a truly realistic look at a weapon and its awesome power to destroy the entire United States, literally within one second. It is a weapon that the Wall Street Journal warns could shatter America. In the tradition of On the Beach, Fail Safe and Testament, this book, set in a typical American town, is a dire warning of what might be our future...and our end.

maintain the shit has gone on for far too long. I mean to say a couple

if you have the stomacj look at the longer threads at QRZ.com and you see 40 yo ryclyed bile about cb emost days

Well to answer you I am sure everyone will say yes it was nice. I mean like minded people got together in a group to discuss things that were on topic. Question I have for you which was never answered by you and probably still wont is why in the world were you possessed to come to this group and be so bothered about keydowners or whatever it was that you really dont like. I mean why was it pissing you off so much? Now gay crap is off topic but linears and antennas are all on topic so why were you so pissed? I mean I know u and steve dont get on but, you were going off before steve came and threatened to hurt you. I mean didnt he come over to your house becasue of what was being said on this group by you? I am just trying to find the SOURCE of all the anger. Since I know it started before you and steve started your fight.

Aww it is the same ole cock sucking stuff. This guy which has been trying to hide his identity for years is the same fuck that came on this group like 12 or more years ago with an aol account. He has been starting trouble ever since. If I remember correctly his name at the time was george. Google it. Somebody made a funny georgie porgie poem about him since he always wrote corny poems about others and songs too. He has hated the guys with the big amplifiers that is why he started calling them key clowns instead of key downers. Then at some point later he had pissed so many people off maybe mopar was the one thta decided to give him a taste of the real thing. What happened after that for many years is what you see here every day.

far too long? hardly. too long is when WE say it is too long, dum-dum.
Also, amps are not on topic in a CB NG. Amps are illegal for CB. We of the AKC have been slapping you bitches silly since 1997 and you can't do a damned thing about it. Sit there and suck on that, along with the truckers you do yer root tootin' on.

You have done nothing, can do nothing, will do nothing. Sending stalkers to people's homes cuz some punk ass can't take what they also dishes out on an NG, ay? Real intelligent. Nodody but you CB faggots are making any threats. The AKC makes the rules here. You asshats and drooling limpwristed peckerwoods can't do shit about it either.

Hello Conor,
Copy the 11 meter length for an antenna, I was thinking about running a square horizontal configuration of some sort and use it as a SW receive wire also, just for S&G.

A buddy of mine runs a 250' square flat wire with a palstar tuner and it works surprisingly well on 11 meters, but somewhat directional. I have a 3 element flatside yagi now so I'm just looking for an experimental wire to wrap around part of the forest out back.

Thanks for the reply.

I think you'll find that only a bit of that is acting as the live wire.

I'm saying the person posting as -'KD8IMG, Robert Trendel, is a twice convicted stalker of women' - is actually doug adair. n8 has documented mental problems if you haven't noticed. Best to filter him from your newsreader, it makes this group slightly less f'd up.

Here he is on the CB radio-http://www.zshare.net/audio/62487058bd2ba01e/

You can pretty much tell what an asshat he is from that.

assuming what moparholic says about this guy doub adair is true, that adair has "documented mental problems" and is an "asshat," moparholic, by his own admission, nonetheless drove out to Toledo and took pics of him, then posted those pics in this ng.

now what does that make steve moparholic??

why would anyone bother to drive out to toledo and take pics of a guy who has "documented mental problems" and is an "asshat?"

hello??

no amount of history justifies mopey's driving out to toledo for a confrontation. only a crazy redneck does something like that.

the house you're stalking isn't a scared CB'er or ham? What if the person you're screwing with is crazier than you? Maybe they don't care about going to jail. Maybe they've been arrested so many times they just don't care anymore. Or maybe they're so emotional they act before thinking." - http://tinyurl.com/qcb8zz

Online rants don't justify driving to someone's house.

Doug didn't drive to Mopey's house.

And I'm not Doug, Steve.

Every time they start swearing,do this! Transmit a 1040hz. tone into your mic. and LOCK your mic down for about 10-15 min. or until they get the idea?
This will create a nasty headache unless they turn off their radio!

C.I.A. Director Panetta is absolutely right when he says he wants to move his Agency forward, America faces a lot of issues right now, but some are from the past and will affect the present and the future of the Intelligence Community and here are some and that can be linked :

1) The Neocon and Oil Lobby's are constantly pushing for a fight against Venezuela and Russia as well as Iran , because as long as they are the " enemy " and " terrorists linked " , America has only one solid source of oil and gas : Saudi Arabia-Qatar-UAE-Kuwait and only one strategic partner in that region :Israel, so they all get all our money, our weapons and attention, and when will the D.C. Politicians explain this to the American people ? when ? that it's all a fabricated dependency to keep us addicted to these 2 lobby's ? when ?

about the weapons in the Colombia-Venezuela affair , they are old bazooka-like single-use rocket launchers that Sweden sold to Venezuela in 1983-84, and now some seems to have been found in FARC's hands, so after 25 years the neocon press (the editorials in most newspapers are controlled by the Neocon-Oil Lobby's) demands that Washington DC declares Venezuela a terrorist country ?

http://www.nytimes.com/2009/07/28/world/americas/28Colombia.html?

The US Policy in Latin America has been a disaster for 25 years, we should have a US-Latin America-Brazil Conference with all the countries in the continent to start a new dialog, a new era, but DC is so incompetent and corrupt, they will do only what the Neocon-Oil Lobby wants : to keep all divided and fighting, so no change here, what a criminal shame !

2) The next weeks are vital for Health Care Reform, for National Security and Rule of Law : the Obama-Biden team must make very clear to 140 million US workers and taxpayers , as well as the huge retiree and disabled group, that

a) IF THEY LIKE WHAT THEY GOT WITH MEDICARE OR ANY PRIVATE PLAN, THE WILL BE ABLE TO KEEP IT

b) AND THAT PRESCRIPTION DRUGS WILL COME DOWN IN PRICE FROM THE STRATOSPHERIC LEVELS THEY ARE NOW

c) and that the multi-billion dollar levels of profits of Pharma ,Drugs, Insurance and their top executives , as well as the Drug ads costs and its tax deductions as business expenses , will come down to earth ...

of course, not included in all this are the Federal employees and Congress members who get what they call a "Cadillac" Health Insurance , like P.Obama has the honesty to say : these amazing super deals like the one he got are excluded, the fact is that Congress members get what no one else gets... the next few weeks of "explaining" is the make or break of the deal.....President Obama also wants to end the 177 billion dollar give-away to Insurance Companies under the Medicare Advantage Plan, which is what the Medicare plan offers already, but will he get the Congress to go along on this ?

d) another little detail is the constant cases of Pharmaceuticals (hello ! Baxter Pharma , how you all doing ?) releasing tainted vaccines to the public, but hey ! if we don't get sick, they can't sell us the medicines ,right?

http://www.healthreform.gov/
http://edlabor.house.gov/markups/2009/07/hr-3200-americas-affordable-he.shtml

and more about Health IT software security, below at 10)

3) about Rupert Murdoch and the Rule of Law :

a) In the 90's , when the Tobacco Lobby was under attack for the costs of emphysema and cancer by then President Clinton and the Democratic Party members in charge of Congress , the top executive Board members of Philip Morris Tobacco, Rupert Murdoch and Carlos Slim Helu among others , were trying to find ways to stop the Legal Investigations going on (international labs were popping-up with modified special tobacco seeds with huge nicotine concentrations, new addictive toxic substances found in most cigarettes were killing laboratory rats in hours ,etc.) so one "plan" was the one proposed by then a gossip and scandal writer working for Murdoch in his New York City publications called Goldberg, and she had a young daughter called Monica Lewinsky ,and while the West Wing of the White House was run at the time by Rahm Emanuel and his partners, Monica became an intern , put right in the center of the White House and was left alone with the president more and more time every day until she got to the core : the President's "personal" attention , the scandal broke-up and the Murdoch TV and newspapers machine started to make millions out of it, all the way to the Impeachment Proceedings....a huge business ,a wounded president under control of scandal and a Tobacco-Nicotine Legislation distracted .....

And now with the same "special team" inside the White House, we all know that it's a matter of time before P.Obama, VP Biden and their teams gets stuck in another "fabricated scandal" and to keep them against the wall and under their control, that's how they always operate : lies, theft, abuse ,extortion and treason , the usual...but as they say : do it to me once shame on you, do it to me twice, shame on me ..... and that's why is so important also to break the circle of corruption and AUDIT the Federal Reserve, this and a new team at the Fed would give the Obama -Biden team power to keep these criminals at bay...

b) Already the way Murdoch got the USA Congress to make an exception so that he could buy assets from G.M. as a foreign national, how he got satellite technology and TV Networks like Fox while a foreign national and they had to change the Laws just for him , how he got away with the Tobacco nightmare, the Lewinsky fabricated criminal fraud, how he and his papers pushed for the Iraq war (with Senator Schumer and Rep.Emanuel , among others, every week on them pushing the lies about Iraq among others) , how Murdoch's papers and TV covered-up the news about the initial march to Baghdad leaving behind warehouses full of weapons and explosives unguarded, how the Baghdad Museum was looted with military precision (and it wasn't the USA or Iraqi Military), how the contractors were losing billions of dollars in trucks and hundreds of thousands of automatic weapons and rifles in transit , and on and on, without a hitch -- we must remember that without insurgency (and armed and with weapons) there was no justification for multi-billion dollar no-bid contracts ... it's a very simple business formula -- it all shows to the world how Washington D.C. has been hijacked by Murdoch and his goons, the Neocon and Oil Lobby's , and it's a criminal shame and a real terrorist act, but will anyone in DC stand up for the Rule of Law ? no one.

even how he avoided taxes on many of these issues in the late 90's and early 2000's should get the IRS going, right? .....not with his friend Shulman in charge of the IRS , won't happen.

c) Rupert Murdoch is a personal friend of Maurice Greenberg of AIG and Judge Rakoff , and the fact that Greenberg fraud case l was in Judge Rakoff chambers has many people wondering, since they all are friends of way back, was there any talks among jurors and Judge and Greenberg? is there anything that we don't know that they know ? how can such a clear double case go in Greenberg's favor ? will the Justice Dpt. investigate ? will Congress ? will the IRS ? will the A.G.'s ? will anyone care ? no.

and in the SEC case against M.Greenberg, he gets a 15 million dollar fine and walks away with 2 billion dollars in AIG and CV Starr stock, and what's the difference in the "cooking of the books for profit " that he did as CEO and chairman of AIG and the "cooking of the books for profit " that others did ? many got 20 or more years in jail, why some go to jail and others get just a fine ? and even others just walk away with a 300.000 dollar salary.... eh! Rahm , like you at Freddie Mac ?

d) In the 9/11/2001 Investigation, Murdoch's friends Zelikow ,Lehman and Ben-Veniste (all the Robert Rubin apparatus) were in the 9/11 Committee, and no one could believe it, since all are friends and partners of the principals in the WTC case : Silverstein, Goldman, Pacific Investments, etc., etc., and specially when : 1) we think about WTC - 7 , the huge third building and that collapsed on its own footprint without being hit by any thing or anyone, in a perfect symmetric collapse ,and still is a mystery to engineers and architects , 2) and while Silverstein had called 23 Insurance companies just weeks before the attack (the leases were signed just 6 weeks before 9/11) to open dozens and dozens of policies over just about everything in the buildings, and about all these issues the Murdoch Tabloid media kept silence refusing to Investigate any of it, and always siding with the Silverstein-Goldman demands for billions and billions of dollars in Insurance payments : the whole thing smelled like rats on a sewer feast , and they were and are feasting on the dead....will anybody ask ? no .

http://www.nyccan.org/
http://www.ae911truth.org/
http://911dvdproject.com/

e) in the 2008 Financial and Derivatives Disaster, the Murdoch TV and Media machine defended many neocons in Wall Street (in many Military-Security and Intelligence Contractors the key stockholders are his Hedge-Fund / Equity / Investment Partners : the war profiteers) and that's why he bought the W.S.J., to cut-off some of the most deep investigative reporting in that paper about the Federal Reserve ,the Treasury, AIG, Bear Stearns,Lehman,Merrill and Citi and their links (they all did their trading and investing in partnership) and the ex-vice-chairman of AIG, Frenkel , and the ex-chairman , Greenberg , know a lot about it, but will any one go to the bottom of this ? and will anyone check the massive high-speed trading they were doing among them at all hours? with the inside know-how of some at the Fed? and that the WSJ was reporting before Murdoch took the paper over ? no.

so all in all, Rupert Murdoch may be a sharp operator, but for the community as a whole, he has been and is a total disaster, a nightmare for America and the world, but ....he puts his foot and money down and in D.C. you can hear all the pants and garter belts dropping to the floor, the screams and cries....he knows how to keep the DC darlings on a leash , and they like it , the incompetent traitors.

Right now, and as many in the financial areas are saying, many " Wind and Solar Power Projects " are being delayed or cancel due to financing problems, and its the Neocon Lobby of Murdoch with Sen. Feinstein , Feinberg etal and the Oil Lobby the ones pushing to slow or kill these Energy Independence Projects with " No Finance" , this "problem" and that "little problem", they want to keep the USA stuck on imported oil and gas and depending on the Middle East for back-up sources (Saudi Arabia-Qatar-etc. and one strategic partner,Israel, getting all our money and attention) , and so the National losses are staggering and the National Security implications huge, but will anyone in D.C. stand up for America? no.

Unless a new generation of politicians and Americans gets elected , we will always have this abuse, the war profiteering , the tax evasion, the corruption and the criminal activity while the " old class " politicians bend over for yet another campaign donation and yet another Murdoch "nice story" in his Media.

4) in the N.Y. Times, "Power Shifts in Plan for Capital Calamity" , July,28,2009 , http://www.nytimes.com/2009/07/28/us/politics/28continuity.html? , we learn that in case of total disaster, the Chief of Staff in the White House, takes control of the Military Office...why ? a political appointee in control? do the President and the Vice-President see where they put themselves in relation to the Emanuel,Summers, Axelrod,Furman, Orszag,Geithner,Shapiro,Gensler , Genachowsky, Feinberg group ? a political-military-financial organized group gets to control the Military Office of the White House in case of total disaster? this is totally Un -Constitutional , but will anyone in DC object ? no !

here is an excerpt ".....Power Shifts in Plan for Capital Calamity.....WASHINGTON — A shift in authority has given military officials at the White House a bigger operational role in creating a backup government if the nation’s capital were “decapitated” by a terrorist attack or other calamity, according to current and former officials involved in the decision.
The move, which was made in the closing weeks of the administration of President George W. Bush, came after months of heated internal debate about the balance of power and the role of the military in a time of crisis, participants said. Officials said the Obama administration had left the plan essentially intact.

Under the revamped structure, the White House Military Office, which reports to the office of the White House chief of staff, has assumed a more central role in setting up a temporary “shadow government” in a crisis.

And the office, a 2,300-person outfit best known for flying Air Force One, has taken on added responsibilities as the lead agent in shepherding government leaders to a secure site at Mount Weather in rural Virginia, keeping classified lists of successors and maintaining computer systems, among other operational duties. Many of these types of tasks were previously handled by civilians at other agencies, led by the Federal Emergency Management Agency........"

5) WASHINGTON TIMES, June,23,2009 :
EXCLUSIVE: U.S. attorney nominee won't ID all clients
http://www.washingtontimes.com/news/2009/jun/23/attorney-nominee-wont-id-all-clients/where we learn that Paul Fishman , nominated by P.Obama to be

U.S.Attorney in New Jersey , won't ID 37 clients of him at his law partnership , amazing,eh ?

and what about the 44 indicted corrupt figures in New Jersey? why the National Media is silent on this when at least 5 were involved in a Money laundering ring ? why not install the guy who did that great job , Ralph Marra Jr., acting U.S. attorney for New Jersey , in the permanent job ?

How is it possible that we find out about a very well organized money laundering operation working between the USA, the EU and the Middle East and the media turns silent ? how is it possible that c-span, npr and PBS don't even mention any of it?

and these same spin outlets, when P.Clinton secures freedom to 2 journalists , Ling and Lee, and out of North Korea ,they spin these great news into a negative gossip,a negative event, and hoping to minimize the success they look for arguments and conflict , and when they fail they go back to their warmongering criminal nonsense and lies , and they talk about patriotism? who are the real terrorists ? who are the real criminals and enemies of America ? what a criminal shame the TV and cable Networks have become !

6) Financial Crisis Inquiry Commission , http://www.opencongress.org/bill/111-s386/show
http://www.politico.com/news/stories/0709/25001.html
The problem is that the neocons will insert a neocon like Zelikow , Feinberg or Porter Goss to steer the Commission into another absurd 9/11 Commission : a cover-up and a distraction : ADD INSULT TO INJURY...

7) Schools with no playgrounds but with lots of vending machines for junk foods and sugar sodas, and then the parents have to spend money buying medications, and my question to Education Secretary Duncan and which so many parents are asking : When are schools in the USA going to have simple "Solar-Wind and Batteries" demonstrators in every schools so that kids can see how these new vital technologies work and to make them part of their natural growth: the new generations must be the leaders in Solar,Wind, Wave, Batteries and Hybrid-Electric plug-ins , fuel-cells, insulation, synthetic fuels and fusion energies, and the best way to grow a leader is to start early, by watching how these natural sources charge-up their gadgets and toys, their laptops and mobile phones, make it a second nature to them, a natural process ..... why not a simple "demo" in every school?

8) In the Criminal Anthrax issue of 2001 , when medical worker Nguyen was killed by heavy-duty anthrax spores at the Manhattan Eye,Ear and Throat Hospital, http://www.nymeeth.org/ , many knew that Emergent BioSolutions (the old Bio-Port from Lansing Michigan) and their executives, like Kramer, had a lot of answers, and then ...silent ! all the key Congress members went silent, no one asked about Bio-Port, and then they presented the usual gentiles as suspects: Dr. Hatfill and Ivins, and the rest is History....until today, how could these anthrax spores get to the Manhattan Hospital ?

9) In the Internet video standards issue , Flash is "no good" for Mac or Linux, that's why we need HTML 5 right now ! we need code, tools, applications , solutions.
http://arstechnica.com/open-source/news/2009/07/decoding-the-html-5-video-codec-debate.ars http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/List_of_open_source_software_packages http://www.w3.org/

at the other hand, this story should bring some joy to many:
"Google Chrome gets skins and JavaScript performance boost.
Google has released a new Chrome beta that includes a theming engine, faster JavaScript performance, several usability improvements, and support for HTML5 video. "
http://arstechnica.com/open-source/news/2009/08/googles-chrome-gets-skins-and-javascript-performance-boost.ars

10) And dear Director Panetta,the key problem in the Health Care Reform INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY CHOICE OF SOFTWARE is WHO is in charge of the medical private data ? , and do they have their own agenda ? who is watching them ? as usual, most of Washington D.C. is clueless, so who will ?

The White House announced that David Blumenthal, MD, was going to be the new national coordinator for health information technology at HHS, and he is in favor of proprietary software while the other Harvard University group that presented the better option was in favor of open-source, and Blumenthal's partners Genachowsky at the FCC, Leibowitz at the FTC , and Summers , Emanuel ,Orszag and Axelrod among others in the White House are insisting on using proprietary Flash technology from Adobe AND OTHER PROPRIETARY SOFTWARE, instead of the free and open-source HTML 5 that the web is based on, why ? at Flash ,where some of the top executives are, what a coincidence! , friends and partners of the above, they are very happy that they will be part of the "control" of all the data of all the citizens in America, isn't wonderful? and of course they will use Oracle from Ellison as database, right ? and if anyone objects, the SEC ,under supreme general chairman Shapiro -- the SEC ex-Commissioner that was in charge while AIG ,Bear Stearns ,Merrill and Lehman were selling hundreds of billions of dollars of Credit-Default-Swaps and she never saw anything !!! -- will immediately correct EVERYONE , if you know what i mean.....it's a perfect plan , wonderful, eh ? and the gentiles in DC ? many of them looking for a belt to hold their pants and garter belts , poor darlings !

So if you put all the dots together, the same organized people that gave us the 2008 Financial Disaster, will now control not only all the private data from all the patients in the USA , they will control also the software that runs the whole national system,amazing ,eh ? and later, when the "dungaroo" hits the fan, they will blame the Democrats and the Obama-Biden Administration, perfect ,eh?

In mi opinion, the sooner the Obama -Biden ticket gets all these neocons out of the White House and their Administration, the better, just look at the "dungaroo" they did Sunday, Aug,2,2009, when Geithner and Summers had the nerve to say on the TV "spin and lie" programs that higher taxes for workers and middle class are not out of the question , so dear P.Obama : when are you going to get all these neocons out ? when are you going to put an honest gentile in the Federal Reserve and audit that "cave" ? when are you going to get Flash out and low-cost HTML 5 video in ? when are we going to get going ?

http://www.ama-assn.org/amednews/site/mobile/content/ga0803.htm

Health Care Reform is vital, let's make sure the neocons don't control our data and software , because their Health Care Financial Abuse and Disaster could make the 2008 Financial Meltdown look like a little joke, they could wreck the whole country, the greedy fools ! , let's get it right this time !

And if you want to see what some people can do with our private data, just read this :
New U.S.-Israeli Crime Ring Detailed
http://www.nytimes.com/2009/08/04/world/middleeast/04israel.html?

11) And the "Standards" issue is an old one :Until 1995, the Defense Dpt. and all its units were using a mix of wireless radios, and then Qualcomm and Jacobs went to "advice" the Military in San Diego ,Ca. , and a few years later, many of the key CDMA and wireless radios used by the U.S. military and U.S. private consumers were paying huge royalties to Qualcomm and Jacobs, they showed up with all the patents, and even when these people got some good technologies, where are the Military and consumers radios that everybody was using as open-source and free of charge in the U.S.A. ? where are they ? .... many consumers and some politicians asked the San Diego based U.S. Attorney Carol Lam about this , but then she got fired and later became the top Lawyer in Qualcomm !!! what happened ? how is that possible ? and about the wireless radios and patents investigations ? nothing.

http://www.signonsandiego.com/news/metro/20070112-9999-1n12lam.html

Right now, America needs a massive push in advanced batteries and hybrid-electric plug-in systems as well as solar and wind energy, we are number 5 and 3 in the world in these key technologies, and that's a total disaster, and how can we spend 2 trillion dollars in the Banks and Financial Institutions (700 billion from TARP plus at least 1.3 trillion dollars between Treasury, Fed, FDIC and others) and then invest only 60 billion for all alternative energies and technologies ? and just a few billions for batteries ? we gave 180 billion dollars to A.I.G., the main promoter of this 2008 Credit-Default-Swaps Disaster, and for our own future and Energy Independence just a third of that ?

That's why also vital to Audit the Federal Reserve , http://www.ronpaul.com/on-the-issues/audit-the-federal-reserve-hr-1207/and investigate the Organic Program Federal Law, where Senator Leahy has worked so hard all these years, http://www.washingtonpost.com/wp-dyn/content/article/2009/08/07/AR2009080703650.html
http://leahy.senate.gov/NwsLtr/20090327news_letter.html
http://www.nal.usda.gov/afsic/pubs/ofp/ofp.shtml

.....and now for the latest part of the Big Trick , "they" are about to install new "old operators" in A.I.G .,Freddie Mac and Fannie Mae, etc., and split , cut , divide and fire-sell their assets and of course, Goldman Sachs, BlackRock,Pacific Investments,etal, will be the key players, so after taxpayers INVESTED hundreds of billions of dollars bailing out these tricks, the same old operators get to make the cut AGAIN ! , and a big one ! isn't wonderful ? a triple whammy !
and Washington D.C. still looking for a belt to hold their pants...and that's also why their stock is going up and up every day, they can smell the roses already ...while the taxpayers will smell the !
$#&XZ@#! again.

in any case http://www.ilfc.com/ must stay in USA and EU gentile hands, it cannot end up in the Middle East with our own oil-gas money !!!

At least we also got Senator Webb that worked so hard for the Post 9/11 G.I. Bill, effective August 1,2009 ... that's leadership, that's the real deal.
http://www.gibill.va.gov/
http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/G.I._Bill

So dear Director Panetta, you are right to want to move your great Agency forward, a very difficult job indeed, but we need a total cleanup, and who will make sure that the old garbage is out ?

It doesn't trash it, the mod allows for line level audio input into the acc2

After being out of the CB hobby for a number of years, I have decided to retire from it altogether and maybe sell off some of my radios. I have mostly exports (President Jackson, Superstar HR2510). Where's a decent place to sell them these days?

thanks,

In case you haven't noticed,in the REAL world there are NO rules in the 11 meter band!! The FCC made their bed in that band,so now they have to sleep in it!! To get the idiots to stop swearing it will take real consequences to make you listen to reason!! Part 95 & 97 are no longer a threat now!!
If you can't hear anything but a LOUD high pitch tone for extended periods,then you WILL stop swearing or shut it off!!

Hello Barry,

Ebay perhaps, but don't list them as CB's. Advance search the completed auctions section first to look at other listings of your radios that have already sold on there and see what they sold for and how they were listed.

Hello Scott,

Won't work well on 2 meters (or 220, 6 meters, or 440 either). Capture effect, you know, and the inverse square rule prevent problems from any great distance. Then again, should you actually attract attention, you'll never know what hit ya ;)

Does that really matter to you? Good god, how stupid are you? Haven't you noticed that there's nothing left of this newsgroup? Both Brian Griffey and Lou Franklin have learned the definition of futility and quit spamming here. In fact, the OT crossposted political crap has stopped because even THEY realize that nobody reads this shit. The only regulars here other than you are fat, lazy, imbicilic trolls who have nothing better to do than to try and make your life (as pathetic as it is) more miserable than theirs. So who the fuck cares who gets the last word?

Not me, that's for damn sure. You aren't that important.

So how many more years can we expect your ego to hijack this group?

And this local Ordinance would be Patently Unenforceable in court today, as the FCC, by Federal Statute, is the only Agency with Police Powers, with regard to Interference caused by Licensed Radio Services in the USA, PERIOD.....

All the talk about keydowns and amps and mods etc is off topic. CB is 4 watts am and 12 ssb in the usa on 26.965 to 27.405mHz. Don't whine about people pissing off the off topic dilwads, they deserve it.

Wink at me
And I'll slurp up your pee pee
I am duggie

I'll do gayboy things
If you want me to
I am duggie

They are yours
My mouth and anal hole
Hammies, you've got full control
I am duggie

Pull another string
And I'll suck your ding a ling
I am duggie

Snap your fingers
And I'll turn gay sex tricks for you
I am duggie

Your wish for some head is my command
I'm the biggest fag
On the CB band
I am duggie

I'm just a queen
A fag-assed little queen
Why are you hammies so mean?

You have control
I do what I'm told
I'll do just anything for you
I am duggie

I am duggie

Just pull down your zipper
And I'll deep throat your dong
I am duggie

Make me get butt fucked
Or make me your gay slut
I am duggie

Use me hard
I love those hard gay tricks
Im a big faggot

And I love to suck on dicks
I am duggie

I'm your sukkin, fukkin
Jizz eatin' little faggot
I'm dyin for some cock
I'll blow the Anti flock

Blow you

Nobody is angry Syphillis-Dumbass. Amps and freqs above 40 or below 1 are off topic. CB is 4 watts between 26.965 and 27.405.

Do you only try to enforce that on here?? Or do you also try on the airwaves? I am sure most folks into CB know what you stated above however it is their choice as to whether they choose to comply. If you are not an angry dude then why the name calling? Pitiful!

Proof? You got none.

On the other hand, you, Douglas W. Adair of Toledo, Ohio, were convicted of the offense of Nonsupport of Dependents, in violation of Ohio Revised Code Section 2919.21(A)(2), a felony of the 4th degree.

http://tinyurl.com/2v2nlo

You also failed to appear for a Debtor's Exam as sought by the Ohio Department of Taxation for failure to pay back taxes.

http://tinyurl.com/2v2nlo

You also were found in Contempt of Court in the case of Robert L. Trendel v. Douglas W. Adair.
Your incarceration was suspended on conditions that you have no direct or indirect with Robert L. Trendel, nor mention the name of the Mr. Trendel on any CB radio or shortwave radio transmission.

Gotta wonder how the Court would look upon your mentioning
Mr. Trendel's name on usenet?

http://tinyurl.com/36lxgp

You keep moving around a lot to avoid paying child support and Ohio income taxes.

http://tinyurl.com/m7tyjp
http://tinyurl.com/lnonqz

The Court needs to be made aware of your activities on usenet and on CB radio transmissions, and your computer and CB radio need to be confiscated.

You need to be put in jail for awhile.
Probation does not seems to have corrected you sufficiently.

Does it matter? Really?

A single atomic device will wreck havoc for a limited area, larger if it is exploded higher off the ground. The reality will be other countries joining in the fray. It could be a real mess. Myself, I'd rather be above ground and die in the initial blast than survive that and start fighting with folks for food (preferably not radioactive). That would be a long and painful death.

You'll have to forgive the lateness in my reply; I've installed Ubuntu and don't have newsgroups installed on that side. I fire up Vista perhaps once a week or so as it is so slow. With Ubuntu, it is perhaps 20 seconds from turning on power to reading my e-mail or surfing the web. No anti-virus to update. Updates on the system, even 7 or 8 files totaling 10 MB or so take only perhaps 20 seconds to download and install. No reboot. No pain. Just blazing speed.

I hate Vista. It is a real slug.

Ok twitlips, inundate at will. Your limp wristed and stressed out cornballisms will get you nothing but our continued amusement. As for sitting on a dildo, I do believe that you have zero capacity to make that come to pass. As you have had zero capacity to stop anything else done by the AKC, you now will just blather and dribble more squirrel turds on your way to becoming our toy of derision and amusement once again.

Uh, Breaker One-Nine, this here's the owned N8
You got a copy on me Lelnad? C'mon

Uh, yeah 10-4 N8, fer sure, fer sure
By golly it's clean clear to Fag-Town, C'mon

Uh, yeah, that's a big 10-4 Lelnad,
Yeah, we definitely got us the front door good buddy,
Mercy sakes alive, looks like we got us a convoy

Was the dark of the moon, on the sixth of June
with Doug getting it on with hogs
Blowing Cabover Pete with a reefer on
And having sex with dogs
We was headin' fer bear on I-One-Oh
'Bout a mile outta Shaky-Town
I sez Lelnad, this here's the N8
An' I'm about to put the hammer down

Cause we gotta little ol' convoy, rockin' through the night
Yeah we gotta little ol' convoy, ain't she a beautiful sight?
Come on an' join our convoy, ain't nothin' gonna git in our way
We're gonna roll this gay ass' convoy, cross the USA
Convoy... Convoy...

Uh, breaker Lelnad, this here's N8
Uh, you wanna back off them hogs
10-4, 'bout five mile or so, 10-roger
Them hogs is gittin' in-tense up here

By the time we got into Tulsa-Town
We had eighty-five trucks in all
Pink ones up on the clover leaf
And I wanted to lick Mopar's balls

Yeah that sounded as good as bugs on a bumper
I even thought of Dave Hall losing his hair
I sez callin' all trucks, this here's N8
I really want to see you bare

Cause we gotta great big convoy, rockin' through the night
Yeah we gotta great big convoy, ain't she a beautiful sight?
Come on an' join our convoy, ain't nothin' gonna git in our way
We're gonna roll this gay ass convoy, cross the USA
Convoy... Convoy...

Uh, you wanna give me a 10-9 on that Lelnad?
Uh, negatory Lelnad, yer still too close
Yeah, them hogs is startin' to seal up our anuses
Mercy sakes, you better back off another ten

Well we rolled up Interstate 44
Like a rocket sled on rails
I though of Twistedhed's radio
and how it almost landed me in jail

By the time we hit that Chi-Town
I was thinking about Tim Nebo's ass
and all the times he keyed on me
while chewing the rag with Brass

Don't forget Jay and Pain and Ice Cold, too and Jim Hampton way up north Yea them CBers do something to me make me question my self worth

Well we hid like kids and squealed like girls and pranced around in women's clothes
those bad men in rec.radio.cb make us realize we're dirty ho's

Hey Landshark, listen
You wanna listen up for my weak radio?
Yeah, I just wanna be heard man
I needs all the help I can git

Well we laid a strip fer a Jersey man whore
Prepared to play with his behind

I was having nightmares about sideband mode and freaking out over freeband time

I sez Lelnad, this here's the convicted N8
we just ain't a never gonna learn

So I clutched the mic
and cried all through the night
I said I hope rec.radio burns

Cause we gotta gay ass convoy, rockin' through the night
Yeah we gotta gay ass convoy, ain't she a beautiful sight?
Come on an' join our convoy, ain't nothin' gonna git in our way
We're gonna roll this gay ass convoy, cross the USA
Convoy... Convoy...

Uh, 10-4 Lelnad, what's yer 20?
San Francisco?!
Well you oughta know what to do with them dogs out there fer sure
Well mercy sakes alive good butty
We gonna back on outta here
So keep the feds off yer ass

An' the magistrate off yer... tail
We gonna catch ya on the flip-flop
This here's N8 on the side
We gone
Bye, Bye...

TOO FUNNY! WHAT EVER HAPPENED TO CD? HE WAS IN ON THE FUN AND HELPED PUSH DOUG
OVER THE EDGE LEADING TO THE ORIGINAL N8
MELTDOWN! GOOD TIMES!

Uh, Breaker One-Nine, this here's the owned N8
You got a copy on me Lelnad? C'mon

Uh, yeah 10-4 N8, fer sure, fer sure
By golly it's clean clear to Fag-Town, C'mon

Uh, yeah, that's a big 10-4 Lelnad,
Yeah, we definitely got us the front door good buddy,
Mercy sakes alive, looks like we got us a convoy

Was the dark of the moon, on the sixth of June
with Doug getting it on with hogs
Blowing Cabover Pete with a reefer on
And having sex with dogs
We was headin' fer bear on I-One-Oh
'Bout a mile outta Shaky-Town
I sez Lelnad, this here's the N8
An' I'm about to put the hammer down

Cause we gotta little ol' convoy, rockin' through the night
Yeah we gotta little ol' convoy, ain't she a beautiful sight?
Come on an' join our convoy, ain't nothin' gonna git in our way
We're gonna roll this gay ass' convoy, cross the USA
Convoy... Convoy...

Uh, breaker Lelnad, this here's N8
Uh, you wanna back off them hogs
10-4, 'bout five mile or so, 10-roger
Them hogs is gittin' in-tense up here

By the time we got into Tulsa-Town
We had eighty-five trucks in all
Pink ones up on the clover leaf
And I wanted to lick Mopar's balls

Yeah that sounded as good as bugs on a bumper
I even thought of Dave Hall losing his hair
I sez callin' all trucks, this here's N8
I really want to see you bare

Cause we gotta great big convoy, rockin' through the night
Yeah we gotta great big convoy, ain't she a beautiful sight?
Come on an' join our convoy, ain't nothin' gonna git in our way
We're gonna roll this gay ass convoy, cross the USA
Convoy... Convoy...

Uh, you wanna give me a 10-9 on that Lelnad?
Uh, negatory Lelnad, yer still too close
Yeah, them hogs is startin' to seal up our anuses
Mercy sakes, you better back off another ten

Well we rolled up Interstate 44
Like a rocket sled on rails
I though of Twistedhed's radio
and how it almost landed me in jail

By the time we hit that Chi-Town
I was thinking about Tim Nebo's ass
and all the times he keyed on me

That could not be moparhoLICK, he has never written an original parody. I rate this one 8.75 out of 10. The only part that makes no sense is twitlips radio almost landing N8 in jail.

post your shit, coward...go on and play. It only underscores the fact that you have absolutely no possible way to stop the AKC. You fantasize about locking people up because that is the only way you know of to silence AKC'ers. Your own wimpass stalker inspired and wanna be toughguy attempts have totally failed. In that total failure you wallow and cry and pudwack all day, just reaching and searching for a way to stop the AKC. Never will happen, retards.

your wife does the dog..."it" is about anything the AKC says "it" is about, faggot. you queens are absolutely powerless. The very fact that you attempt to define "it" being about something shows your lack of perception of reality. You have no power here to define anything.
Think Japanese guys on the deck of the Missouri. That is you.

1. 4 Watt (12 watt PEP) CB radios that operate in chanelized fashion between 26.965 and 27.405 mHz. in 10kHz steps as set forth in the FCC rules.

2. Antennas, which few of you limpdix know the slightest thing about.

3. Related CB accessories that are NOT RF amplifiers.

You drooling goons talk about all sorts of OT crap, but when you get picked on about it you go bonkers. Music to the AKC ears.

Now, watch you fairies post a bunch of amp shit and illegal radio shit here just to stick your tongues out at the AKC. We are in sympathy with this reaction. We know it is all you can do.

You have to attempt to change what it is about because if you admit that it is about who makes the rules in this NG you are defeated. We already know that the AKC is the boss of this NG. Has been for years.
Nothing you post can change or stop that.

Hi all!

I have a Maco 6 antenna that I want to get rid of. It has never been used, but the original box got wet so don't have the original packaging for it.

I was wondering how much one of these in good to mint condition would go for?

Thanka!

Do you mean a 6 element Maco beam? If it's never been used and you still have the sealed plastic containing the hardware, I've seen it retail for $195 so figure accordingly.

Dust the cobwebs off those black boxes. Winter is coming. Heat some of those radio rooms with those good old fashioned tubes.
I'm looking at buying some hunting property this fall in North Carolina (might have to look up my old friend Yrac) or NW Virginia. I understand 500 watts or better is the norm for some of those boys in the hills.
Pump up the radios, fellas! Looking forward to hearing from the old gang.

Note that back in 1999 1mangang predicted you would come apart over rec.radio.cb, gain a criminal record if you didn't already have one (you did), get busted by the FCC and self-destruct your reputation. He was right on all accounts. Your meltdown resulting from his taunting when you made the Rain Report is legendary and continues to pay off in spades.

Remember those things? I had one back when I made my first post in this group.
Aweseom directional capabilities. Others favorites ears included the CLR2 Groundplane, 5/8 Tri-radial base and of course, the Maco line. Never bought one of Jay's antennas but copied some of his hardward design and incorporated it into my own Maco 5/8.
I heard great things about his work, though. I'm about ready to place a few new toys in the new ride. We'll make some DX and piss off the nocodes.

The Moonraker IV and the Hy Gain Big Gun were great antennas used by all the serious CBers in the 70s. Never leave out the Shakespear Big Stick as they were used by a lot of CBers in the ice country. The big stick may have had shortcomings, but I never knew of one and the big stick stayed in the air when all the aluminum ones came down coated with ice. Sirio makes some really inrterestingly engineered antennas. I'm considering the 4 element yagi as my next antenna addition. I like to read all kinds of information about cb radios especially antennas, so please share your antenna expiriences with us.

Blow it out yer ass, ya chump faggot. Been a damned long time melting down, aint it? Anonymous posts by a known sawed off little fugly pimper are not even a wiggle on the meter. The Moonraker and the Hy Gain Big Gun II were two of the best antennas designed. Also the Shakespeare Big Stick was a great antenna, at least in the north because they would sitll remain up when the ice had taken down the aluminum antennas. I'm now looking at a Maco 4 element beam or a Sirio 4 element beam. Let's hear more about CB and CB antennas.

Usd to be a whole crew of them on here but dougay the cocksucker hates guys that get their names called on the superbowl so he and the AKC (which consists of doug and his blowjob buddy) sucked off all the keydowners until they did not want anymore. He then got angry and started to call them key clowns. Because they no longer accepted his blowjobs. He is an angry and bitter shemale.

Nah! It's about the residual fallout from N8's meltdown on the air and on the group (with a little help from the regs). Besides, with the way Doug and Leland follow me around you know what they say about imitation, flattery, monkey see monkey do, etc. I think it's rather funny but ironic how Leland rags on Doug in anonymous posts to make him think it's Mopey!

Well this Dougay guy would need a whole lot of power and watts to get heard on the Superbowl and after checking out his schtick I don't think we have anything to worry about. His ham gear just won't cut it with the big boys. Anyone make it to the Labor Day keydown in Little Rock?

Don't worry, be happy. The forum monster was sanctioned, had the maul hammer dropped on his pointed little head for the time being. Christmas is coming early this year. Stay tuned for more surprises. We're back with big watts and just getting started with the new sunspot activity (solar cycle 24) that began this past Sunday. Looking at new mobile antennas to rattle the northeast. Peace.

I've been grown up for a long time that's why I'm happy and don't worry and can use all the watts I want and you can't do anything but whine about it. Why -you- have a problem with -me- talking about solar cycles and skip and big watts speaks volumes about yourself and your own insecurities. I'd tell you to grow up but you're destined to infantile status for the rest of your days. You really need to stop being so paranoid and quit allowing our radio fun to cause you pain.
I said it before and I'll say it again .... too bad ignorance isn't painful. Number 1 mudduck with the golden key just got down.

I have limited experience with a friend's three element Maco and the thing screamed. I mean this setup was devastating in every way. He ran it with a 100 watt modulator mostly on the flat side, Cobra 2000 (untouched). A four element should get you worldwide and treetop tall in no time with the proper setup. Not familiar with Sirio antennas. I've made a ton of dipoles over the years with success ranging from fair to excellent. Fiberglass antennas are great for certain locations and applications. I'd bungee strap one in a tree during hunting season and talk skip while sitting around the campfire at night roasing marshmallows and eating venison.

The Moonraker and the Hy Gain Big Gun II were two of the best antennas designed. Also the Shakespeare Big Stick was a great antenna, at least in the north because they would sitll remain up when the ice had taken down the aluminum antennas. I'm now looking at a Maco 4 element beam or a Sirio 4 element beam. Let's hear more about CB and CB antennas.

I got the Bluegrass state coming in loud and clear here in the gator swamp. Running a steel whip with a Galaxy DX77 and a 500 watt Boomer and M76B Astatic D104. Thinking about buying one of them newfangled souped up radios with the built-in linear (100 watts or better). Thoughts and brand recommendations?

Hello Robert, yeah the 2510 is a great portable. I'm not so sure the rain is good for DX but I'm certain it's good for anything that grows, and we've been light on the rainfall here in N Central Ohio to date, so it's a welcome visitor.

These sentences say it all:

Though you might have heard of soil conductivity mostly in terms of agriculture, it can also have a pretty big impact on your radio reception. If you have highly conductive soil, the combination of water and the minerals present in the soil help reduce the amount of attenuation, or weakening of the surface wave, that usually affects a radio signal. So the combination of increased soil conductivity and tropospheric ducting makes for some rare and exciting distant radio listening.

Few people know that they can look forward to the rain, even in a city, because the conditions after a rainfall create a rare opportunity to hear radio signals as far away as Ohio even if you're in New Jersey.

If you live on the West coast, you can also take advantage of the high conductivity of the salt in the ocean to pull in signals as far away as Japan.

Bob and Buzz, your DX lesson for today is over. 'Nuff said.

Maybe I need to t y p e v e r y s l o w l y so you can grasp it.

Rain has nothing to do with skip. Skip is determined by conditions in the ionosphere some 60 miles above the earth. Rain is produced in the troposphere which extends from ground level up to approximately 6 miles.

Rain may improve receiving conditions somewhat in some instances but skip is either there or it isn't and rain has nothing to do with it.

So it raining at your location and you claim that makes it better for you to hear DX stations. So if it isn't raining at the DX stations location I guess he then can't hear you, right?

The original poster said: "All this rain is making for some good conditions. I'm pointing south to see if I can hear you. I'll be on 38 lsb the rest of the day.
667 in the Great Lakes"

The rain had nothing to do with him hearing and DX stations via skip. He would be hearing them even if it wasn't raining. The rain had nothing to do with the propagation conditions.

Well,if you think about it aren't 98% of the people on cb pretty much scraping the bottom of the gene pool? Think about it,why would you expect more from a cb'er? IF you're looking here for intelligence then

Gee, Buzz. Yer contradicting yerself. First you say,
"Rain has nothing to do with skip" then you say
"Rain may improve receiving conditions somewhat" which is what the original post conveyed: rain is good for skip.
Read up on rain scatter.

Maybe I need to t y p e v e r y s l o w l y so you can grasp it.

Rain has nothing to do with skip. Skip is determined by conditions in the ionosphere some 60 miles above the earth. Rain is produced in the troposphere which extends from ground level up to approximately 6 miles.

Rain may improve receiving conditions somewhat in some instances but skip is either there or it isn't and rain has nothing to do with it.

So it raining at your location and you claim that makes it better for you to hear DX stations. So if it isn't raining at the DX stations location I guess he then can't hear you, right?

The original poster said: "All this rain is making for some good conditions. I'm pointing south to see if I can hear you. I'll be on 38 lsb the rest of the day.
667 in the Great Lakes"

The rain had nothing to do with him hearing and DX stations via skip. He would be hearing them even if it wasn't raining. The rain had nothing to do with the propagation conditions.

He's having trouble gaining internet access right now.
We took a page from his book and narced him out to his isp for breaking terms of service. They finally enforced their terms of service with a well written letter illustrating that the dude is a blight on society.
Holidays are coming, after all.

Hello,
I want to put an antenna on a -fiberglass- motorhome (class a) and I'm not sure about the no gound plane vs the regular mobile antenna choices. I have a ladder rack on the back, and a luggage rack on top, but I'm not sure of how much ground I can get from that.

I have a 102" whip laying around and I thought about mounting that to the back bumber with a homemade plastic 'standoff' at the top of the motorhome to keep it from swinging.

Good idea, or no? (tree pruner is not what i want) but from the bumper I can use most of that 9' before it clears the roof on a fiberglass body.

Strange combo.

Rain may have something to do with improving receiving conditions somewhat, and I say may, but it has absolutely nothing to do with the propagation conditions that cause skip. The skip is either there or it isn't and rain isn't going to have anything to do with it.

> Read up on rain scatter.

Applies to VHF and UHF, nothing to do with skip at HF. Scatter isn't skip.

The whip will give you excellent reception. I'd go with what you're proposing.

Hey, it's a motor home, not a sports car. Besides, strange is in the eye of the beholder, and everyone knows you're not strange (not even by a long shot).

BTW, where you going with it? (Hopefully not Mexico.)

Niggers like Obama are a smokescreen from the liberal media to try to force honest God fearing American Whites into accepting the criminal activities of the nigger and force white people to have abortions.

Niggers lead all crime categories. This is not an insignificant fact.

FACT(population numbers rounded UP for the niggers and DOWN for whites)
40 million niggers in the United States
200 Million Whites in the United States

Niggers do 46% of all crime
Whites do 33% of all crime

Now think about it, at least 150 MILLION MORE WHITES and NIGGERS DO MORE CRIME!

NIGGERS males are 23.4 times more likely to commit crime than a white man.

Niggers like Obama are a smokescreen from the liberal media to try to force honest God fearing American Whites into accepting the criminal activities of the nigger and force white people to have abortions.

Niggers lead all crime categories. This is not an insignificant fact.

FACT(population numbers rounded UP for the niggers and DOWN for whites)
40 million niggers in the United States
200 Million Whites in the United States

Niggers do 46% of all crime
Whites do 33% of all crime

Now think about it, at least 150 MILLION MORE WHITES and NIGGERS DO MORE CRIME!

NIGGERS males are 23.4 times more likely to commit crime than a white man.

whackers will be arrested.

this is proof that anonymos norman was correct that even if it's completely legal in your state, you must uninstall equipment installed in your car while driving through another state.

So you must remove that legal tint from your car while on vacation before driving through a state which prohibits that tint by law, you must remove all cb equipment from your car and all ham radio equipment.

I thought this violates the law that states must recognize all other states's laws, especially in regards to vehicles, but obviously not since this is proof that anonymous norman was correct.

3260. how do I remove the emergency channel from my cb, so I can legally transmitt?

It wasn't directed to me since I was just readsing what had already been posted.

While reading the cop forums, the cops said "it is against the law to have a CB radio in your car unless the emergency channel on it is disabled.

and only then may you legally use it to transmit on the other non emergency channels.

The cops from all states agreed this was the law.

Now, the only emergency channel on a CB is 9.

Of course they know this. That is why they said "channel" and not "channels" like on a scanner.

I think disabling it defeats the purpose of having the channel on cb in the first place, but the law is the law, ansd good upstanding moral citixens MUST follow ALL laws, so it must be disabled from being able to transmit on cb channel 9 while keeping the ability to transmit on the other 39 channels in order to stay legal.

The problem is the only way this can be done is by modifying it to do so, and the cops say it must be modified in EXACTLY that way in order to stay legal, otherwise they will fine and arrest you and "hrow you in jail for your illegal activities of having transmit capability on CB channel 9 which only terrorists do, so you deserve to be in jail for committing illegal terrorist activities like that"

I thought modifying the CB to do such, voids the FCC type acceptance and makes it illegal and against the law to use on any channel if the emergency channel on it is disabled.

But I was obviously wrong, since the cops in EVERY state say the law is the opposite and that you will be thrown in jail for your illegal terrorist activities of obeying the FCC rules. Which only terrorists do.

Okay, so they didn't say "of obeying the FCC rules", but that's obviously what they meant by saying the rest.

3261. Why local police should never have legal authority over any radio

Cross-posted to: rec.radio.amateur.policy,rec.radio.cb,alt.radio.family,rec.radio.scanner,alt.radio.scanner

This concerns both ham radio and cb radio and possibly others.

Imo, the FCC made a mistake by allowing local police authority over CB radio.

Police should never have that authority. There have already been incidents over it.

One cop made posts attempting to show why local police have autrhority over (what the did not have authority over) and why they should be allowed to do so.

But in doing so, he only proved to those in the know why local police like him and local police departments like his should never have any authority over CB, ham, frs,gmrs, and any other radio the FCC allows the general public to use.

When asked how he can tell what is a legal radio and not and whether he was trained or not,

he replied his police department was trained in such matters and that after stopping a driver for a possible illegal radio or after entering someone's home in a rfi interference case, which the local cops have all aithority under , to determine if the radio is legal or not, with the other local cops from the police department, if it has a FCC type accepted sticker on the back, then it is a legal radio and the person won't be arrested, but if it dpesn't have a fcc type acceptance sticker on it, whether cb, ham, or any other type of radio, then the person will be arrested, ticketed, and fined since that is proof positive the person is guilty of both illegal activities and rfi.

Great, so what the cop just did, if that situation ever arised in his jurisdiction, he just let all illegal cbers who modify legal fcc certified/type accepted cbs to operate on the freeband and/or 10 meter and 6 meter ham bands go scott free since there's either an FCC type accrptance sticker or an FCC certified sticker on the back of the cb, depending on when it was made, off scott free and free to continue their federally illegal activities while arresting all legally operating ham radio operators who have radios which don't say fcc cerified/type approved on the back.

Such as if they built their own or imported one.

Then when asked how he would know if a person is a legal ham or not since a legal ham who just passed the test doesn't have his license yet, and the FCC says you can start transmittijng as soon as your call letters appear in the FCC database, before you recieve your copy in the mail, so in that case the legally operating ham doesn't have anything to show to the officer anyway.

The cop replied that a ham who takes the test gets a CSCE , and must ny law show the csce to the officer and that the csce is proof that the person is indeed transmitting legally.

Great, so the officer just let a guy who only took the test on a bet with his friend on whether he can pass the tech test or not, but has not had any call letters appear in the FCC uls database yet let alone recieved in the mail, off scott free after catching him illegally transmitting on ham radio frequencies without a valid legal call, but using phony made up calls he looked up in the callbook, qrz, or the fcc uls database.

despite what the cops say and think, a CSCE is NOT proof that you are operating legally and NOT proof you are allowed to transmit.

A perfectly legal ham who has just recently passed the test and has had his call letters appear in the fcc database but has not recieved his hard copy through the mail is legally allowed to transmit and does NOT have anything to show the officer anyway that proves he is allowed to transmit.

So the local cops are way out of line, and way out of their jurisdiction to even require ANY license or ANY proof that any person is allowed to transmit on ham radio.

They are also way out of line to even ask about it.

OK so the whip might be the ticket for now, next up is making a plastic or rubber standoff to keep it from swinging around so much. I figure I'll hook that to the luggage rack which is right at the roof line and let it -whip- above that somewhat.

Mounting an antenna on the side or back of a motorhome can be ineffective in some directions. You really need to have an antenna as free of obstructions as possible.

The best choice for a lack of ground plane is a set of dual antennas.
Something like this: click on dual antenna kit
http://www.firestik.com/CatalogFrame.htm

Or for a single antenna:

I've generally heard one antenna works better than two unless you can seperate them more than is practical in -most- applications but I could be wrong about that. The NGP antenna involes using your coax length to match the swr, right?

My plan is to cut enough coax to reach from the whip mount to the radio, and none for tuning the swr.

Thanks for the help, tnom, I only want to do this once so I figure to ask questions first..maybe test and tune along the way. I fugure the 102"will see right through most of the coach, no?

What metallic framing is just under the fiberglass. What wiring?
Any of this running parallel in close proximity to the antenna will have an effect.

I used to be into CB radio many years ago.Back then my calls sign was KCR8988.
Does anyone know the pinout for the microphone on a lafayette HB 400.
I actually need the schematic but any information all at will help.
I believe the power transformer is gone but will not know until I receive the unit.
Any info at all would be great.

Instead of a 102" whip flying around,why not simply pick up a shakespear marine cb antenna that's designed to be used with fiberglass craft? It could be mirror-mounted then you're done!

As I posted earlier, it won't be flapping around except above the luggage

The mirrors are fibergalss too... and I don't like the idea of using my coax length to tune my swr.
Plus the fact the 102" will out listen and talk most any coily antenna.

When you have a lack of or minimal ground plane you make the coax part of the antenna! The coax length effects the SWR reading.

A ground plane decouples the antenna.

I applaud the FCC's recent statement and reaffirmation of the rules and what the amateur radio service was created for.

And I was especially glad to see so many true hams stand up against the people trying to usurp the frequencies.

Until then, I was beginning to think I joined ham radio for the wrong reasons.

My earlier posting automatically lumped those folks in with the true ham radio operators because everywhere I turned, all I was hearing is that's the main purpose of amateur radio.

Well, not according to the FCC. And not according to U.S. law.

Since the wackers are so interested and much more knowledgable in and about amateur radio, it's history, and the law, then they must know for sure where the laws they want changed originate and how to easily change it. LOL.

As proof wacker emcom hams are bad for ham radio, I've seen a site made by a ham who is obviously one of the emcom hams although I don't know or remember if he's actually a whacker or not.

His website was about "proper ham radio etiquette".

According to him, proper ham radio etiquette on the ham bands, including the repeaters and simplex frequencies is to never ever use ham radio terms or ham radio jargon on the ham radio bands because no one else understands what those words mean, and therefore breaks the FCC rule requiring plain English must be used, but that it's okay and even preffered to use CB terms and CB jargon on the ham radio bands because everyone understands what those words and terms mean and therefore doesn't violate the FCC rules requiring plain Englisg be used.

Yes, you read that correctly. He claimed proper ham radio etiquette on the ham radio bands is to never ever use ham radio jargon on the ham radio bands at all, but that it's okay and even preffered to use CB jargon on the ham radio bands!!!

Wow! I guess all those true hams claiming ham radio is currently becoming like and turning into CB were correct after all.

At first, I didn't think it was. Until I read that.

I would give the url, but I put it on disc somewhere, and deleted it from my computer and don't remember where it's at. Yeah, I know that will make the whackers here post there's no such whacker site. Well, I don't care what you beleve, "and that's the pfffttttt truth."

He was definitely the typical emcom type, though. Said all ham repeaters and frequencies should be kept as free as possible from anyone communicating on them because they might someday be needed by emergency personnel and that if you must talk on any ham repeater or any ham frequency, the total conversation time between both parties should not last more than two minutes.

And preferrably should not even be that long.

(That's one minute per person, or less if you do it the preferred way) .

(preferred by whom? Why obviously prefered by employee emcom workers who don't want anyone else talking on the bands so they can say the bands are empty of other activities and should be turned over to emcom employees.

Of course he and they don't usually admit that part. That's one of the reasons they keep kicking true hams off the ham frequencies whether simplex or repeaters.)

(There's also other reasons such as power trips, etcetera)

Also, he said that you should never ever make any outgoing calls on IRLP or Echolink because when you do, there might be someone trying to get in on Echolink or IRLP who can't because you are blocking them from doing so by having dialed out and connecting to and using another repeater.

Wow! Well, imo, if everyone followed his rules and never made any outgoing calls on IRLP or Echolink, (which some particular hams obviously want), there wouldn't be any incoming calls anyway since they would be outgoing calls to the person making them. And since there isn't any incoming calls anyway, then why not dial out and use the Echolink and IRLP to connect to other repeaters?

On second thought, even if he's not the type of person who impersonates policemen and fireman and ems workers or goes out to the scenes,in my opinion, he's still a whacker.

Ham radio terms and jargon improper etiquette on ham radio frequencies?

CB radio terms and jargon preferred and proper etiquette on ham radio frequencies?

Outgoing calls on any IRLP/Echolink repeater or link anywhere should never ever be made anywhere anytime because there might be an incoming IRLP/Echolink call on that IRLP/Echolink repeater (which happens to be a prohibited outgoing call to the person making it, if you follow his rules. He wasn't talking about his repeaters but all ham repeaters).

At least, that's the best I can remember it to the best of my memory, anyway.

IMO Yep, a true wacko/wacker alright.

The same things are happening here in chile , about a year ago i was forced to go outside the car because i had an 80 and 40 meter band whips on the roof of my car , after being interrogated for almost an hour , and inspecting my TS-50 HF radio they leave us , i even show to them my ham licence. they didnt had a real reason for stopping us . other day my mother was stopped because was carrying a K40 cb antenna on the roof of the suv and a royce 639 cb , we have the legal paperwork for the radio , but instead of asking for the cb permit (we are one of the last countries that requieres cb permit) , they started to make odd questions , it was a new SUV , they asked of she was able to buy it and odd humilliating things like that , then they started to bitch about the CB , for what was and etc , my mother also a ham replied that was 100% legal to carry it having the CB , then she asked for a higher ranking officer , the cops just let she . thats my experience with cops and radios . i know a lot of third party

men , channel 9 is for that , transmitting in the event of a emergency , is more illegal to ask to remove it from the radio , than having it , here in chile we have almost identical FCC type laws , they are a copy , if a cop bitches you for being on the 9 , just say that you are monitoring if a emergency happens , he has no influence over it , ch 9 for emergencies is a gentlemans agreement , as 19 is for truckers . here we even have attended a birth on channel 9 , there are no laws about having or not having ch9 , ch9 is there for a reason CITIZENS EMERGENCY COMMS , cops cant make their own laws , FCC owns the airwaves not the cops !

Because I was NOT talking on the radio while driving, I was so tired I accidentally ended up passing a school bus with it's flashing lights on. It's stop sign wasn't out or down yet, but it's still against the law to pass a school bus when it's lights are flashing.

X-No-Archive: Yes

If I had been talking on the radio while driving, I would have been more awake and more alert and not have accidentally passed the school bus while it's lights were flashing. I would have been stopped in time.

Thank you, al you idiots out there, especially in New York and California and other states who make the roads MORE dangerous by outlawing talking on two-way radios while driving unless you're a policeman, so that drivers who are tired after a long day of work will fall asleep at the wheel and cause accidents so the cities, counties and statess can make more money by fining them instead of staying awake so there's no accidents or less accidents.

But the states don't actually care about the safety of other people. They just care about the money even if it causes other people injuries and death or little kids to die.

Idiots.

okay, which one of you bozos did this. Being interested in radio, we all know what really happened here. But here's what you bozos have the general public thinking.:

"As usual, the long work day was coming to an end and I was dutifully putting the last load of laundered clothes away in our bedroom when I heard a ruckus on the baby monitor just a few feet away from me. I thought it strange when I knew my husband and toddler were both in the living room quietly watching TV as my two-year-old drifted silently off to sleep curled in my husband's lap as he caught the evening news.
The bedroom door was straight in front of me and I could see all the way down the hall to my husband and son in the Lazyboy chair as this ruckus over the monitor continued.

It didn't take long for me to realize the sounds were very familiar.
Earlier in the day, I was in my toddler's bedroom putting a load of folded clothes into the drawers and picked up some stray toys and books that weren't being played with at the time. As I was doing so, I was telling my son about the story of "Jack and The Beanstalk" for the first time.

Now I stood in disbelief as I heard the drawers being pulled open and shut and rustling of the toys and books being put into their proper places. But I nearly fainted when I heard my son's voice over the monitor! I kept looking back and forth at my husband and now-sleeping son in the chair in the living room and the monitor sitting on my dresser that was literally replaying the specific events from earlier in the day!

The monitor is a standard baby monitor bought from Wal-mart and is NOT a recorder, but instead monitors the sounds coming from the room as they are happening at present time only. I listened as my voice retold the story of "Jack and The Beanstalk" and listened with familiarity as my son responded in baby-talk to the tail he had never heard before.
The incredible part was this all happened five hours earlier on the same day!

I quickly called my husband into the room as he listened to the last part of the story with my voice coming through the monitor and our sons coos and chuckles. He stood stunned and turned his head and looked at our sleeping son flopped peacefully over his shoulder. In disbelief, he asked, "How in the hell...?!" as his voice drifted off trying not to miss a thing. I just stared at him in the same disbelief and we both just shook our heads.

This has never happened before or since and became pretty clear from the beginning that we were listening to some kind of warp in time. I never imagined in a million years that I would be witness to it and must admit, if it should happen to you, it is indeed, one of the most incredible moments one can ever experience!"

It's been proven that talking on a two way radio helps keep you more awake and more alert on the road than not using one at all..

Just ask the truckers who use CB.

nice, so you're using gmrs radios at higher power levels than frs radios including gmrs repeaters.

I hate to tell you emcom wackers and other wackers out there this (no, not really. ha!), but you're STILL illegal.

The FCC has already ruled you're a business.

The FCC has also alreasy ruled that business use is NOT allowed on

At least, business use by organizations isn't allowed.

No, this wasn't a recent ruling. This ruling has been in effect for years.

Since you yourselves stated in the above paragraphs that you either the 102 will work but that remains to be seen. It has a big ass

the problem is

several neighborhoods and neighborhood watches have already appounted certain people in their neighborhood as head og frs/gmrs in case of an emergency, although probably not in every neighborhood.

Then along comes emcom and appounts theirselves as heads in the same neighborhoods,

so what now happens is in case of an emergency, the heads appointed by emcom and neighborhood watches will be fighting and arguing over who is in charge of the emergencies and frs/gmrs channels.

NOT a good situation, in my opinion.

Emcom should be using either the public safety channels or the business channels.

LOT of TEN or Singles.
Minicircuits ZKL-1R5 [ZKL1R5] RF MICROWAVE AMPLIFIER(s), Wideband 10MHz-1.5GHz.
High-end Amps, MedPower +18.7dBm, LowNoise 3dB, Gain 39-40dB. NEW - in original Minicircuits/antistatic packaging (never used, USA origin & location, ships worldwide).
Either Singles or entire LOT (price shown for a Lot, but message us if you want single(s) - shipping is CHEAPER than shown ($5.20), etc. however on a quantity basis you save by dealing as a Lot, not Singles - message us if you just need a few, not all 10 units).

Posted on Ebay, item# 330371507322 - goto www.ebay.com & enter 330371507322 into search. "BuyNow" OPTION is AVAILABLE - NO need to wait for Auction ending.
Contact via Ebay (best) or Email. By Email, can hit "Reply" in Newsgroups but REMOVE "nospam" strings if appears in my address (edit address manually, but sometimes it’s already done) so I could respond from a real address/name. Do NOT reply on Newsgroups (I posted here, but will NOT read), and if I get much spam that address will be DISABLED, so you'll have to communicate via Ebay (which, incidentally, is more secure anyway). My Ebay feedback is 100% positive, not to mention 14 YEARS of Newsgroups trading without complains. Again, description is on Ebay but a few facts are copied here (for convenience):

 TECHNICAL SPECS:
A DATASHEET PDF is at manufacturer's site www.minicircuits.com-->enter "ZKL-1R5" into search--> datasheet (do not omit dash, ZKL1R5 instead of ZKL-1R5 will result in an error); so only a few specs are copied below. Finally, check the price Minicircuits is asking - $150/unit, we're asking $39 "auction start" & $56 "buynow" options - new/sealed units but @33% cost (reason to sell is explained below)
• Wideband, 10MHz to 1.500 GHz
• IP3 +31 dBm typ.
• LowNoise 3 dB typ. (not bad for a MedPower amp, rather than dedicated LNA)
• Gain 40 dB typ., Flatness 1.2dB
• VSWR IN 1.4, OUT 1.6
• P1dB Compression Point +15dB min, however charts indicate 17.6 to 18.7dBm

• Connectors - SMA (50 Ohm impedance), gold-plated.
• DCpower +12V nom @115mA max, but will take a range of 9-13V or wider.
• More data, plots, etc. are in a datasheet (PDF) downloadable from manufacturer's website.
Example of applications: communication systems e.g. cellular, satellite distribution, GSM/ISM; Radars, we're using them in a Middle-Stage Amplifier block in an MRI (magnetic) scientific instrument.

 REASON to SELL::
Our RF Engineer has changed Product design in which this amplifier was previously used (a scientific instrument); so not all purchased lots of ZKL-1R5 could be finished before new design "kicked in". In the new design, ZKL1R5 overloads the newly designed next amplifying stage (which became more sensitive) & we don't know a clean way to attenuate ZKL1R5's gain (38-40dB!, lowering powersupply is not a solution & not enough). So instead we switched to using ZFL-500 amps with lower gain & narrower bandwidth (0.5Ghz, in fact all we need is 0.2GHz, not even 0.5GHz). Minicircuit's policy is not to take them back & it's laborious to try to retrofit these into a new system - it's better if we simply sell, at a loss or not, but it's easier. We're already stocked on 60 ZFL-500's, so design change is permanent/verified.

I, in fact, come from a competing RF company (not to be mentioned) so not interested in promoting Minicircuits, but this is one of Minicircuits better models; as far as I know it's using Gallium/Indium PHEMT/etc. FET’s or something to that effect, not surprising but $150 price is already difficult to attain, yet we ask even 3-4x times less or to exchange for ZFL500 (Minicircuits said ‘no”). It's a pity at the new company where I moved in 2008, which is using RF Amps (not designing them), we cannot use ZKL1R5 due to gain excessive for a new design (was normal in an older design), also we decided don't need 1.5GHz expensive amps considering our signals are under 200MHz.

P.S. Again, more photos are at that http://photos.starium.org site - pictures are better than a lengthy verbal description.

as per FCC Rules, GMRS/FRS are Open Frequencies, and ALL Users MUST yield the Frequency to Emergency Communications, on a Situation by Situation Basis. So if one party has a "Safety of Life and Property Situation ongoing on Frequency, then ALL OTHER Users MUST find alternate Frequencies to use, while the SOL&P is ongoing. When the ongoing situation is resolved, OR the local FCC EIC issues a Cease & Desist Order, which ever comes first, then the frequency returns to an Open Frequency, available for other communications.

There would be No fighting and arguing about who has the Frequency, as it is Open Untill the First SOL&P Transmission, and then it stays with that Party untill the SOL&P Issue is resolved, or a C&D Order from the local FCC EIC, is announced.

This stuff is all resolved in the FCC Rules, already... NO harm, Ho Foul...

Son, what kind of crack are you smoking? NO cops in ANY state have ever declared that it is illegal to have a CB radio capable of receiving or transmitting on CB channel 9 - nor could they make (or enforce) such a law even if they wanted to, The FCC is the ONLY government agency which has the power and authority to regulate such activities.

Now, I could see a situation where police might prosecute someone for falsly reporting an emergency that didn't actually exist using CB channel 9 - just as they would for a false report via telephone - but that has nothing to do with what you seem to believe.

Nor does this have anything to do with the laws that exist in some states prohibiting the use of police-band scanners in vehicles - that's a different matter entirely.

You are a gullible fool if you believe such a thing, just because you might have read it on some blog. No such law exists in any state. Please provide proof to the contrary if you disagree.

Besides it makes absolutely no sense. In fact, the state police in my area post signs along the interstates advising motorists that they (the police) monitor CB channel 9, and that motorists who need assistance SHOULD USE CHANNEL 9 TO SUMMON HELP in the event of a breakdown, accident etc.

more proof the wackers just don't get it.

Several neighborhood watches appointed certain people as head of frs/gmrs communications in an emergency just like the wackers did except thery're not wacked out.

In an emergency situation, they will tell the emcom wackers to get off the channel because "it's an emergency and FCC rules require (the wackers) to move off frequey in an emergency since they (the appointed head of frs/gmrs neighbrhood watch in case of emergencies) is in charge of running the emergency communications on frs/gmrs whenever there's an emergency.

While the emcom wackers will tell the neighborhood watch frs/gmrs emergency head to get off the channel because it's an emergency and FCC rules require them to move since they the self-appointed emcom person is in charge of frs/gmrs during an emergency.

Then an argument erupts between all the emcom workers and all the neighborhood watch people.

That IS a frequency fight.

as Stated Above, The Station who initiates the FIRST SOL&P Communication on ANY Open Frequency, controls that frequency, untill the SOL&P Issue

In the case directly above, the emcom folks would be in violation of FCC Rules, in that they would be interfering with SOL&P Communications in progress, and therefore would be subject to Comm-Act 1934 as Amended, prosecution, which can levy fines and imprisonment of $10KUS and 5 Years

Any argument that erupted would be a violation of the SOL&P

Unless the emcom Worker is licensed as a Ham, he is in violation of the CFR47Part97 just by transmitting on any Frequency listed in Part 97.
Then if he is a Licensed Ham, he would be in Violation of the CommACT of 1934 as Amended, for initiating a SOL&P Communication where none existed, OR, interfering with an ongoing communication in progress.
Either one is prosecutable. These so-called emcomm folks, apparently don't know the CommAct of 1934, or FCC Rules very well, or they wouldn't be making such STUPID assertions. This all seems like a paranoid delusion, only in your mind, as it isn't a problem in most other places around the country.

These self-appointed emcomm folks you talk about, can use FRS, as covered under the Blanket FRS License in the USA. they may also apply for and receive a GMRS License for their outfit and use that as well, once licensed.

> They can still use CB.

Yes, they also can use the Part 95 Frequencies under that Blanket License in the USA.

> They can apply for use of public safety frequencies.

In order to use Part 90 frequencies they would need to apply for and receive a license for a particular Radio Service Listed in Part 90.

Business Radio Service would be available to them, with just an application, filed.

Any Public Safety, Fire, Local Government, or EMS Radio Service Licenses would need to be applied for, BY the local Government, and then these folks, could be users under the local Government License.

They might just sneak in by trying the Special Emergency Radio Service,
IF they could somehow convince the FCC Licensing Folks that they can meet the requirements of that Radio Service. I think that would be a REAL Stretch, however, knowing the FCC Licensing folks, as I do....

Being a reTired FCC Field Agent, and doing FCC License Consulting for

Rain may have something to do with improving receiving conditions
somewhat, and I say may, but it has absolutely nothing to do with the propagation conditions that cause skip. The skip is either there or it isn't and rain isn't going to have anything to do with it.

Applies to VHF and UHF, nothing to do with skip at HF. Scatter isn't skip.

Hello Frank, yeah something like that would work or something a bit more flexable for when it bangs off of tree branches and such.
It will be late winter/early spring before I install it so I have time to ponder on it, I'm sure I'll come up with something.

Do you like the 102" whip, or the 'no ground' antenna mounted to the ladder for my application?

Beats me. The few 9' whips I've seen on RVs were bolted to the front bumper. But anything you mount is going to hit something eventually.
And almost anything will work for local chatter under a mile, which covers the vast majority of CB usage on the road. Once you park you can screw on any stick that can be carried inside the RV and you don't have to worry about hitting power lines. So it seems to me that a whip-swapping system would give you the most bang for your buck. Heck, if I had a two-piece 9' whip I could keep it stashed behind the seat of my truck..... hmmm.....

3332. CB radios, ham radios, and frs.gmrs radios outlawed

CB radio and ham radio has recently been outlawed in Ontario, Canada as part of the cell phone ban while ddriving. No, this is not another case of vagurly or broadly worded law. This was deliberate. And if it can happen in Canada, which it did, it can also happen in the U.S

Notice the CB and ham radio excuse of using microphones being safer doesn't hold any water with the government lawmakers: And I've seen the same similar description elsewhere of lawmakers in the U.S. saying two way radios are even more dangerous than cell phones because of all the buttons and dials and cord on the microphone which has to be hand held.

Where do they get this stuff?

CBs and ham radios have been being used mobile since at least the 60's and in the 50 years since then, I've never heard of any accidents caused by people talking on the radio in tthe U.S., even when the CB craze was at it's height with more people on CBs than are now on cell phones.

At first glance, I thought this also outlawed frs/gmrs. At second glance, it looks like they will still allow frs.gmrs. At third glance, I can't tell if they're permitting frs/gmrs or outlawing it.

"According to the Ontario Trucking Association, the government plans to phase out CBs and similar UHF/VHF radios over the next three years"

"Officials insist CBs present a particular challenge since the receiver and communications unit are separate from each other and connected by a cord"

"TORONTO – It’s enough to make CW McCall switch to singing the blues.

Ontario’s ban on hand-held cell phones, texting and other communication devices while driving kicks in on October 26, and surprisingly, the government has included truckers’ Citizen Band Radios (CBs) and similar types of two-way radios in the ban.

According to the Ontario Trucking Association, the government plans to phase out CBs and similar UHF/VHF radios over the next three years, assuming that two-way, hands-free technologies are developed within that time. The OTA says that the Ministry could extend that timeframe should no suitable technology be readily available to replace CBs.

Officials insist CBs present a particular challenge since the receiver and communications unit are separate from each other and connected by a cord.

The pending Ontario ban on CB radios appears to be the only one of its kind in North America.

The law, which passed earlier this year, officially takes effect on October 26, where the focus will be on educating drivers. Police will start issuing tickets on February 1, 2010 for non-compliance.

The set fine for talking without hands-free setting or Bluetooth while driving has yet to be determined before that date. However, the fine range permissible for this offense is between $60 and $500. Reportedly, demerit points will not be handed out for violations.

There are some accommodations for the commercial sector, however, including permanent exemptions for satellite, navigation, collision avoidance and other fleet management systems for the viewing of logistical information on a display as long as the vehicle is not in motion and the device is not held in hand.

The same goes for hand-held push-to-talk devices, hand mics and walkie-talkies, which are popular in short-haul and vocational applications especially.

Just as the law applies to standard cell phones, push-to-talk devices can only be used while driving if they are mounted or secured to the vehicle and is easily accessible and activated by one press of a button. It cannot be hanging from the roof of the cab or dashboard.

OTA played a big part in winning some exemptions. Before the finishing touches were made to the law, MTO officials were taken to trucking companies to witness the need of such technology in daily operations.

The OTA supported the intent and the principle of the law. It says the final version “is directionally appropriate.”

“We support the hand-held cell-phone ban and believe that the Ministry has made reasonable accommodation for most of the other hand-held devices used by industry that serve an important business purpose.”

However, Bradley concedes that the three-year phase-out of hand-held CBs is likely to draw the attention of many truck drivers.

“Given the still pervasive use of these devices in the industry, I expect there could be push-back from some truck drivers,” he said. “In many respects the CB is not only an important part of the truckers’ social network, but it is also an important safety device in its own right.”

okay, I found a little more information, which beings up some more questions.

Especially since I might be visiting Canada again sometime in the future.

As I understand it, U.S. law prohibits on CB and ham radio what Canadian law now requires.

hmmm... This information states that it's a little bit different way than the other article stated how the law was.

The other one stated Ontario is phasing out CB and ham radio completely.

This one states Ontario is just requiring CB and ham radio to use hands-free devices.

Now I'm not sure which one to believe.

This is no big deal. All you need is a bluetooth device with vox to accomplish the task. For truckers this does make since, becuase they need both hands free for the wheel and the trucks gears. I think the impact on four wheelers is going to be very small since CB has basically died for most drivers. It won't be a problem for hams either since they can use VOX & Bluetoothdevices to talk.
If this law was passed thirty years ago it would be a problem, but with all the high tech gear that can solve such problems it will be easy to adapt for the changes in the law.

Hello Frank, you just gave me an idea. The motorhome already has a short CB antenna on it (sucks) for portable comms so I might try an A-99 mounted to the ladder rack just for 'parked at the site' comms. They're three sections so I could store the top two sections inside the home when not in use. Like you say...hmmm..

Thanks for your input, Frank.

CB radio and ham radio has recently been outlawed in Ontario, Canada
as part of the cell phone ban while ddriving. No, this is not another case of vagurly or broadly worded law. This was deliberate.
And if it can happen in Canada, which it did, it can also happen in the U.S

Notice the CB and ham radio excuse of using microphones being safer doesn't hold any water with the government lawmakers: And I've seen the same similar description elsewhere of lawmakers in the U.S. saying
two way radios are even more dangerous than cell phones because of all the buttons and dials and cord on the microphone which has to be hand held.

Where do they get this stuff?

CBs and ham radios have been being used mobile since at least the 60's and in the 50 years since then, I've never heard of any accidents caused by people talking on the radio in tthe U.S., even when the CB craze was at it's height with more people on CBs than are now on cell phones.

At first glance, I thought this also outlawed frs/gmrs. At second glance, it looks like they will still allow frs.gmrs. At third glance, I can't tell if they're permitting frs/gmrs or outlawing it.

"According to the Ontario Trucking Association, the government plans to phase out CBs and similar UHF/VHF radios over the next three years"

"Officials insist CBs present a particular challenge since the receiver and communications unit are separate from each other and connected by a cord"

"TORONTO - It's enough to make CW McCall switch to singing the blues.

Ontario's ban on hand-held cell phones, texting and other communication devices while driving kicks in on October 26, and surprisingly, the government has included truckers' Citizen Band Radios (CBs) and similar types of two-way radios in the ban.

According to the Ontario Trucking Association, the government plans to phase out CBs and similar UHF/VHF radios over the next three years, assuming that two-way, hands-free technologies are developed within that time. The OTA says that the Ministry could extend that timeframe should no suitable technology be readily available to replace CBs.

Officials insist CBs present a particular challenge since the receiver and communications unit are separate from each other and connected by a cord.

The pending Ontario ban on CB radios appears to be the only one of its kind in North America.

The law, which passed earlier this year, officially takes effect on October 26, where the focus will be on educating drivers. Police will start issuing tickets on February 1, 2010 for non-compliance.

The set fine for talking without hands-free setting or Bluetooth while driving has yet to be determined before that date. However, the fine range permissible for this offense is between $60 and $500. Reportedly, demerit points will not be handed out for violations.

There are some accommodations for the commercial sector, however, including permanent exemptions for satellite, navigation, collision avoidance and other fleet management systems for the viewing of logistical information on a display as long as the vehicle is not in motion and the device is not held in hand.

The same goes for hand-held push-to-talk devices, hand mics and walkie-talkies, which are popular in short-haul and vocational applications especially.

Just as the law applies to standard cell phones, push-to-talk devices can only be used while driving if they are mounted or secured to the vehicle and is easily accessible and activated by one press of a button. It cannot be hanging from the roof of the cab or dashboard.

OTA played a big part in winning some exemptions. Before the finishing touches were made to the law, MTO officials were taken to trucking companies to witness the need of such technology in daily operations.

The OTA supported the intent and the principle of the law. It says the final version "is directionally appropriate."

"We support the hand-held cell-phone ban and believe that the Ministry has made reasonable accommodation for most of the other hand-held devices used by industry that serve an important business purpose."

However, Bradley concedes that the three-year phase-out of hand-held

CBs is likely to draw the attention of many truck drivers.

"Given the still pervasive use of these devices in the industry, I expect there could be push-back from some truck drivers," he said. "In many respects the CB is not only an important part of the truckers'
social network, but it is also an important safety device in its own right."

kelp was a typo from the resident nut-boi, KB9RQZ. In an effort to cover his fat ass, Markie just started posting "GTE KELP".

Wonder if Markie had any kelp during his recent visit to the nut house???

Maybe poor wording, which is easily misunderstood.

First, the misleading subject:
CB and Ham radio are NOT outlawed. There is simply a ban on the use of hand-held communication devices while driving a car.
This applies to ALL such devices, and there is even a ban on use of hand held entertainment devices while driving.

There are presently exemptions for use within business, including truckers using CB radio, and for Amateur Radio. These exemptions last for 3 years, to allow the industries a chance to develop hands free options.

Now, the "phasing out CB and Ham completely" suggestion:
This appears to be a very poorly written piece of reporting. The 3 years will be a reference to the 3 years exemption offered to professional users of CB and to Hams. After that time, ALL those users will be expected to use compliant equipment. This may simply be an existing CB radio with hands-free technology added (possibly plugged into the microphone socket).

When the UK government said that they were phasing out "27/81"
CB equipment, many people thought it was an end to CB. It was really just that all new equipment would have to meet the new standards.

Try going direct...
http://www.e-laws.gov.on.ca/html/statutes/english/elaws_statutes_90h08_e.htm#BK128

http://www.e-laws.gov.on.ca/html/source/regs/english/2009/elaws_src_regs_r09366_e.htm

For those not covered by an exemption, consider some hands-free options which have been available for decades. Repeat after me...

Voice Operated Switch.
(aka VOX).

It is also fine to use microphones with a locking PTT, you are allowed to lock a microphone while driving as long as it is fixed down properly.
TTI appear to make a hands-free kit for CB radio.

Now your comment, "never heard of any accidents caused by people talking on the radio"
What you hear about is what the media decide to feed you. Mostly, this is a combination of what they (or the government) want you to hear and what will improve their ratings or sales. There are plenty of very common events that no longer get covered by the media, they are no longer shocking enough to bump up ratings.

It should also be remembered that the mobile communications market is massive. Not just devices, but rather profitable minutes are being sold. Calls made while in vehicles will account for a large portion of that income. Different reports give totally different figures for accidents caused that way, but one side want a total ban on mobile communications while driving, and the other wants to keep their profits.

It cannot be denied that some accidents occur, but the level of the problem appears to be unknown. We may not be able to trust any figures, as those collecting them will have been paid by someone who wants to get a certain result.

According to a 2001 report, compared to mobile phones, you are 7 times more likely to crash because of your car stereo and 7 times more likely to crash because of other occupants of the vehicle. It also suggests that you are twice as likely to crash due to adjusting normal car controls than using a mobile phone. I could show you a photo of the result of a driver being distracted by the gear stick (causing a head on smash). Clearly, having to fumble about for any controls is a distraction.
Once you go down the route of banning anything which could be a distraction, you end up with single person vehicles with everything possible being automatic and absolutely no audio system or other accessories.

Peter.

See.....Marky can't help himself. I would have thought his OCD would have been addressed during his recent visit to the mental ward. Guess Marky was released too soon. Guess the treatment can't be top shelf at a public hospital.

Hardly, just the end of holding a microphone in one hand and driving with the other. And only in that part of the world. Hands-free options have been about for years, but we have not been forced to use it.

> Perhaps the CB makers will spring up with hands free CB, to

VOX equipment has been around for decades. Now TTI manufacture a hands-free device.

The problem may be marketing. CB is now a small market, so manufacturers do not push their products like other companies do.
There is no money for high impact advertising, so I guess that many people do not know about the options available. That appears to include the law-makers, who have left a period for adjustment in the belief that there are no hands-free options for CB.

So truckers can continue to hold the microphone in one hand and a Yorkie bar* in the other, steering with their elbows. The only reason for hands-free kit is that they have run out of hands to operate the mobile phone with :~)

BTW: The Canadian law also allows police and other emergency services to continue to combine driving with using the radio.
Clearly it's not dangerous when driving at high speed in an emergency.

Regards,
Peter.

* Brits who remember the 1970s will get this side-swipe at the chocolate adverts. A TV advert showed truckers as good looking, chocolate munching (yet not overweight) knights of the road. Women of the day really believed this image, blissfully unaware that truckers only ever let lady drivers pass so that they ogle them and stare at their knockers - saving the trucker the price of paying a pavement princess for a quick peek.
(A later campaign made it clear that this chocolate was "not for girls", even printing the slogan on the wrappers - for which they got in trouble.)

What do you do when you're travelling in a caravan and operating completely legally under your immediate relative's GMRS CB license and a cop pulls you over and demands to see YOUR radio license and then when you can't show or give it to him , he fines and tivkets you and arrests you and confiscates all your legal radio equipment because

"you're operating radio illegally since you don't have a radio license and if you do have one, you're operating illegally since you're not carrying it with you".

The courts in Officer Bubba's county, Officer Billy Bob's county, and Officer Deputy Dawg's county will NOT rule in your favor.

I didn't mention Barney Fife because I think even Barney Fife would hve more smarts than that.

I've seen several people here and on the net say the officer has the right to demand it and the right and even DUTY to arrest you if you're not carrying your radio license with you even if you are licensed.

And that it's your own fault if you don't have the license with you to prove it.

Again, the FCC does NOT issue a physical paper copy to all the immediate relatives of a GMRS licensee.

Although the relatives are covered under the GMRS licensee.

But you can't call your relative for help to being his license becaue he's now out of range since the cop stopped you and cell phones don't work because there aren't ant cell phone towers in the very rural tri county area of Officers Bubba, Billy Bob, and Deputy Dawg.

Are you really this Stupid, or are you just a Morooon (Bugs Bunny Definition)

FRS and Citizens Band are Licensed under a Blanket License issued by the FCC that covers ALL US Citizens....

GMRS Licenses are issued to the Primary Licensee in Paper Form as are All FCC Licenses... To meet Posting Requirements established for each Radio Service, Photocopies are considered equal to FCC Original Licenses.

If you "Look" in the GMRS Rules, there will be a sub-section on License Posting Requirements, and if not, then Posting is Not Required, for that Radio Service, and therefor not REQUIRED to be in the operators personal possession. Duh....

Does this Mythical "Barney Fife", have a Copy of the Radio License for his "Cop Radio" on him? The answer is "NO", and the reason is, it is NOT REQUIRED For That Radio Service. It Is REQUIRED that the Original License be POSTED at the Principal Operating Position for that Radio System, which is designated ON the License..... and be available for Inspection, by FCC Personnel.

If you would just READ the FCC Rules for you Radio Service, this would all be clear to you, but apparently you are not capable of this.... So you post these stupid Rants here....

Why...

Heck of an idea. Kinda wish I had thought of it myself. Just don't forget that the A99 is a half-wave, so don't expect it to tune like it does on the roof. You might have to spin those rings quite a ways before you get a decent match.

Yes sir I'm not sure how well it will match up but I can always add a tuner
if need be, I'll let you know if it works ok next spring.

The ladder mount plus the 18 feet will put me up in the breeze quite a bit at the campsites I travel.

Hey if I have a tuner on board I should prolly have some disposable wire and a wrist rocket on board too eh? hehe

Don't laugh -- I have a crossbow. It works. I had to custom make a special bolt for the job, and drilled the stock to attach a spin-cast reel, but it works.

>> procedures would be adjusted from gate to gate as experience dictated."
>> The procedures announced in the Public Notices announcing the gates are >Great adaption there Frank, which tuner are you using?

Homebrew. Built it inside a small, waterproof mil-spec box. My original plan was to launch a dipole and use the tuner at the ground junction between the coax and the twinlead. But that turned out to be more trouble than it was worth so I pulled the balun and swapped a couple parts. Now it's a long-wire tuner. Works great with barbed-wire fences if you can hook it up at the gate or on a corner; doesn't work so well tapped in the middle of a long, straight run.

3485. Marky's Renaissance Fair Free Credit Report dot Com Tune

Marky was getting depressed 'cause of all the stress he was feeling at home.

Marky has a little cock and Gav would taunt him wherever he'd go.

Marky Thought he'd move to a place where he could have a tiny dick and Gav wouldn’t care.

He just wishes that Gav had told him that place was a Renaissance Fair!

VE7KFM dot com!

Tell your friends, tell Gav's dad, tell Gav’s mom!

Never mind they've been singing our songs

Since Mork showed up sucking Karol's dong!

If you're not into fake sword fights

Karol says Marky’s ass ain’t tight!

Take a tip from a knight who knows

VE7KFM dot com, Mark blows!

Guys,
Remember the television show "Dark Angel" with Jessica Alba?
It was based on the after effects of an EMP.
Any large nuclear explosion, especially a 10 Megaton would create enough
EMP to knock out most of a coast electrically with no blast damage.
It's possible now to detonate a 50 megaton (100 with Pu added) at about 200,000 feet which would make a mess out of ground networks and fry any satellite that was too close.
It isn't science fiction but fact.

Yeah, that jumpsuit.
The EMP thing is one reason why my communications radios all have tubes.

So, don't use one in the U.S. of A. I thought that your moan was about Canada outlawing hand microphones. Is it a violation of FCC rules to have a spare microphone sat in the vehicle for when you are in other countries? What about the hands-free option? Do the FCC outlaw all safety related CB equipment?

Here in Europe, different countries have different standards.
We do have a common standard, 40 channel FM, but each country may also have additional channels and rules. I can buy a CB which can do any of the European channels and modes. It is up to me to ensure that I only use it as allowed in whatever country I am in. For example, I can only use the UK band (27.60125 - 27.99125MHz) within the UK. If a European country says "hands-free only, then that is how I would have to use it there - even if the required hands-free equipment was illegal for CB use here in England.

>> This weekend marks the 37th running of the ARRL 10 Meter Contest >> <http://www.arrl.org/contests/rules/2009/10-meters.html>. Back in >> November 1973 when the contest was first announced in QST >> <http://p1k.arrl.org/cgi-bin/topdf.cgi?id=62388&pub=qst>, the rules >> differed slightly from how they stand now. This event began due to the >> interest that radio amateurs showed in the 10 meter band, thanks to the >> 5-band awards offered by the ARRL. "Occupancy is an important issue of >> the day as is proof that there's life in the old band yet," the article >> stated. "At a recent convention the matter was raised and met with >> enthusiastic response. Rather than postpone the idea for another year, >> the consensus was 'let's give it a try for '73,' prompting a >> recommendation by the Contest Advisory Committee."
>> <http://www.amsat.org/amsat-new/satellites/satInfo.php?satID=29&returl...
>> ites/history.php>
>> ? In 1973, each completed two-way QSO was worth 2 points, except QSOs >> with a US Novice were worth double that. The article pointed out that >> certain FCC-issued Novice call signs look a little strange: "Novices in >> KZ5 and KG4 have strange call signs -- a Canal Zone Novice has an 'N' >> at the end of the call, such as KZ5AAN. A Novice in Guantanamo Bay has >> an 'N' after the number, such as KG4NAA. All others replace the K with >> a W (i.e. WL7, WH6, etc.). If you work a station once on cw you can >> work him again on phone. Oscar QSOs also count."
>> Oscar QSOs? As in the satellite? Yes! The 1973 rules stated that "Oscar >> 6 contacts may be counted. All cw QSOs must take place between >> 28.0-28.5 MHz except those made though Oscar 6." The article also >> advised contest participants to stay clear of 29.45-29.55 MHz, as these >> were the Oscar downlink frequencies. Beginning in 1973 and continuing >> through 1979, QSOs made via the Oscar satellites counted for credit in >> the ARRL 10 Meter Contest. Beginning in 1980, after 10 meters had >> seemingly come back to life, the CAC no longer accepted the QSOs for >> credit in the contest. Now you know!

Every day on the news,local and world, there are pictures of little shitskins getting their flu shots. I have not seen one white child yet to get the shot. In my area, rural, they do not have them in yet. It seems like all of the inner city, black,run down schools are up first! These shots are going to run out because of all the niggers. Who cares about these little niggletts anyway? The parents surely do not care.and to top it all off.They are getting the more expensive version of the H1NI (the nasal mist) . The white children are the future of this country and they should be protected before the future farm hands and dishwashers. WTF? tell me if you have seen any white kids on tv getting shots.

you ignorant fucking nigger. it's just like a nigger to wish for something that will never happen.
usenet's been laughing at you, however since feb. 2006, the first time you thought you would foul the air with your presence. by the way, you must be a wigger or an old coon boy because the

What does this tell you??? Perhaps the little brown ones are indeed the future instead of the rural trashy poor white trash. Could be that the people with power have another agenda... The brown ones may be not hardly. we wouldn't have a jigaboo in the whitehouse if george bush wasn't the worst president in history. nigbamas approval ratings are in the toilet along with his credibility.

Nor stupid or a moron. It's from experience, and a lot of experience.
E-X-P-E-R-I-E-N-C-E
> FRS and Citizens Band are Licensed under a Blanket License issued by the > FCC that covers ALL US Citizens....

Yes, and I've been stopped while parked at a public park in the middle of the day for less than two minutes for illegally listening to a legal FCC-certified factory stock CB without the appropriate radio license which says that I'm allowed to transmit ham radio on the regular 40 channels and legaly allowed to conduct ham radio operations on the regular 40 channels, which is a clear violation of FCC rules, but the ONLY way that's legal according to the cop.

I was getting ready to go for a walk on the public trails at the public park in the middle of the day during normal business hours when the parj is open to the piblic., had been there less than two minutes.
It takes longer than that to turn off my CB, gather up the things I'm going to bring on the trail, such as food and/or drinks and lock my car doors.

Before I could get out, a police car pulled up flashing it's lights, not s park ranger car, but the municipalities' police cars. They look different. The park rangers cars say ranger on tem and don't have the municipalities name on them like the cop cars do.

He made me show him my car insurance papers and drivers license even though I was completely parked and hadn't been speeding and called in my plates.

At first he claimed to have stopped me for loitering . Since when is two minutes loitering? As I said , it takes longer than that to get ready since you have to unbuckle your seat belts, state law requires having them buckled while driving, etcetera.

Then he claimed to have stopped me because he saw me at the park a different day.

After all, it's against the law for you to go to a public park near your house more than one time in your rntire life.

But most of his quesions and statements were about the completely legal 40 channel CB i had which I think is the real reason he stopped me, because he saw ONE antenna on my car.

He asked me if I had a ham radio license to use it. I I honestly replied it isn't a ham radio, it's a CB. And that I was only listening to it (which is all I was doing at that time) I was talking normally, not confrontational. Then he told me that it was the law that I still have to have a ham radio license permitting me to operate ham radio on those same CB channels (the legal 40) even just to listen and asked me if I was going to study for my ham radio license so that I would be operating leggally by operating ham radio on the CB channels.

Now I was nervous because I knew he was going to arrest me and haul me off to jail even though I didnt commit any crime, unless that county actually does have a law stating that, in which case they're telling innocent law abiding citizens that by law, they MUST violate FCC rules.

But is definitely against the law in that county to disagree with anything a police officer says to you (whether it's correct or nor), so I obeyed the law and told him yes, I was going to study fot the test for the license (which allows me to legally transmit ham radio on the regulart r40 CB channels).

Then instead of arresting me like he said before he was going to (when I answered honestly about it being a CB instead of ham radio) he said okay and that he was letting me go since I agreed to study for the license which says I;m allowed to transmity ham radio on th CB channels but that he was putting me on the criminal terrorist list since I broke the law by illegally listening to a CB radio without the REQUIRED license which specifically says I'm allowed to transmit ham radio on the CB channels and that he would be watching me from now on.

Well, the other week, I had to ask my car insurance agent something about my car insurancde card and papers, and without even mentioning the incident above, my car insurance agent said I won't have to worry about and won't have to show my car insurance card to any police officers as long as I'm not speeding and not committing any other moving vioation or parking violation.

Well, I imediately knew my car insurance agent was wrong and mistaken from the incident above, but I didn't say anything to him about it.

After all, my car insurance rates would go up if they knew I was also getting stopped by ploice while legally parked in a legal parking space.

Thankfully, the policed in my own county aren't that bad. Actually, the police in my own county are good and uphold the law, while I know for a fact that the police in the next county used to have a speed trap until the state got after them for it.

I've also been stopped by cops and told it is illegal to have a shortwave broadcast reciever in my car whether insttalled or not. Mine was installed. It covered ONLY the shortwave broadcast bands, and not even all of them. No other crime was comitted and no other reason for the stop. I was even told by the cop that's why he stopped me. And it was NOT a crime in my state to have one in the car at the time, whether installed or not and it still isn't. Now, Michigan is a different story.

It covered only a few of the broadcast bands, such as 49 meters. It was not continous tuning across the entire shortwave spectrum but just a few broadcast bands. That's ALL it covered. What was so illegal about listening to the BBC while mobile here in the U.S.? And why is it any different than listening to the AM or FM broadcasters while mobile here in the U.S.?

And since it's illegal to listen to uch broadcasters as the BBC and Radio Netherlands while mobbile here in the U.S. (according to the cops), then why haven't they stopped and arrested the people using Sirius and XM radios in their vehicles while mobile?

As I understand it, those tadios can also pick up the illegal to listen to while mobile BBC and Radio Netherlands whilre mobile here in the U.S.?

And before you say I can just fight it in court, no I can't. I'm not rrich and can't even afford the huge regular court costs let alone another $300 required to appeal it if not ruled in my favor by the local court.

And that doesn't even count lawyer fees.

And no, I wasn'ty argumentive in any of thise conrontations with the cops when they stopped me and was NOT comitting any crimes whatsoever at the time, not even speeding.

They manufacture excuses and put innocent law abiding people on criminal lists which they can't be taken off of.

And that kinnd of thing NEEDS to be stopped.

Especially in this country where we're supposed to be free and innocent untril proven guilty.

And that is why a formerly friendly, formerly shy person who used to mind his own business and tried to be friendly to everyone had turned into Scrooge.

Because of policer syopping me and putting me on a criminal listfor the crime of listening to a FCC-type accepred Cb without the REQUIRED license allowing ham radio license on the regular 40 CB channels in direct violation of the FCC rules because obeying the FCC rules is illegal (according to the cop).

That didn't stop multiple cops from arresting someone for "illegally" legally "transmitting" on a GMRS radio on his own property.

Where is the REQUIRED license saying that I'm allowed to conduct ham radio operations on the regular 40 CB channels in violation of FCC rules so that I'm legal???

Clue.... It doesn't exist. The FCC issues no such license since it's a violation of it's rules.

And my state certainly doesn't.

The only other possibility is it's either a county or city law (not my county or city, thankfully) issuing such licenses in direct violation of FCC rules, similar to OSU requiring people to use non-certidffied transmitters in violation of FCC rules if OSU says you must.

And therefore, the city or county has comitted a criminal act since only the FCC has authority over radio transmitting in this country.

Or the cop is making up the story about such a license being required, which I nelieve is the case- him making it up- in which case the cop is guilty of committing the federal crime of fraud, and incitring people to commit criminal acts. It is against the law to tell other people they must commit criminal acts.

Such as violating FCC rules, which according to him, is the only way to remain legal.

> If you would just READ the FCC Rules for you Radio Service, this would

I've read them. At least the parts that concern me such as part 15, CB part 95, and FRS/GMRS.

And I understand them. It's the stupid idiotic cop that doesn't understand them.

I had a copy of part 95 rules with me at the time. And even that wasn't god enough for him. According to him, to remain legal, I still have to violate FCC rules, otherwise I'm breaking the law.

Not that I'm going to listen to him. He was one of the younger people who has attended public schools more recently. Which I have found out the hard way and through experience are idiots and jerks and atre that way from the public schools since everyone else I know who attended private school at the same time are not idiots nor jerks.

While the ones I know who did are all idiots and jerrks.

In any city I go to.

That's how I know it's because of the public schools' more recent teachings.

Your HOA has some very serious issues. I had a similar problem with the HOA, here, which was formed after I moved in. They went after my radio installation with a vengeance.

After some rudimentary research, I found that much of this was coming from the cable company which had funded the forming of the HOA. We, as a community, weren't wired for the most part, so to force the issue, the cable company bought into the HOA and pushed the antenna ban.

It took some time, but vigilance, not letting an HOA meeting go by without a presence, and reading the appropriate FCC Rules into the record, and a couple of face-downs in which the Sheriff's department had units in my driveway, I prevailed.

You have to stand your ground. An HOA is not a governmental entity with the power to overturn Federal Rules and Acts of Congress.

It's a fight, to be sure, but it's a fight that can be won. Both TV Antennae and small dish satellite systems are proteced species.
And you have the clear understanding that it's NOT illegal to obey FCC rules and federal law.

You must use a part of the building over which you have total control, like your porch, patio, or window sill. You have no right to access a common area e.g. a shared rooftop.

Also, the rules do not allow HF antennae, unless they are disguised as TV reception antennas (which is easily doable).

When I started looking for houses I told the Realtor (www.evelyn.com) that I had antennas and a drum set. She said "Canyon Country!"

Scrooge likes the fact that the D-Star users have xhosen the still currently in use by sstvers national sstv frequency as the national D-Star calling frequency.

It irritates the h out of both groups.

Scrooge likes the fact that there are at least four different amateur radio repeater coordinating groups in the same place at the same time.

It simultaneously irritates the h out of all the groups no matter what frequency you're transmitting on.

Scrooge likes that PRSG's actions resulted in lids being heard on 27 mhz decades after they would have otherwise been gone.

The 27 mhz lids irritated and still irritate the h out of people worldwide.

What the original poster (Radioguy) has is an unenforceable Property Contract. This type of stuff, gets thrown out of Civil Court, every time it comes up and just because the Language is in the Contract, does NOT make it Enforceable. If it did, then not LAW, could stand..... Why does this Yahoo keep bringing up these STUPID situations, that he has no knowledge of???? Inquiring Minds, want to know....

Probably because he's describing an issue that comes up more often each day. And HOA's are becoming more aggressive at harrassing people into surrendering their property use rights, in favor of the association's vision of what life, and media access should be like.

The rights and powers of HOA's are poorly understood. Most often by the HOA's themselves. And the conflicts that arise from HOA covenants and restrictions running square into Federal laws and regulations have left a lot of folks confused, frustrated, and in many cases unnerved.

Sonny, You are a Certified, Class A, Blue Ribbon, Moroooon (Bugs Bunny Definition).... This has ALL been explained to you before, But you don't seem to be able to understand The KINGS English....

Now it also seems that You, and your local Barney Fife, are of equally poor intelligence, and are to DimWitted, to understand how the Federal Statutes under which Radio Law in the USA is administered.

Old Barney there doesn't seem to understand that HE is exceeding his Jurisdiction, when he, according to you, tries to enforce some arbitrary Rules, that have to do with Radio Law, in the USA. If he had brought YOU, into a Court of Law, The Judge would certainly thrown out any charges that concerned Operation of a Radio, stemming from any local Statue, as the Local Statue would be in violation of Federal Preemption, and therefor unenforceable.

and you, Sonny, don't seem to be able to understand the difference between Part 95 and Part 97 of the FCC's Rules and Regulations. There is NO SUCH THING as "HAM Operations" on frequencies authorized in Part 95, since those frequencies were transfered from Part 97 to, the then NEW, Part 95.

You either operate under Part 95, or Part 97, but NOT both, in any one transmission.

Sounds like you and Barney Got into it, because you're an Ass, and he is an Idiot, and Barney won because HE had the BIGGER Gun..... and some how you never got in front of a Judge, who would have settled both your

Oh how In hate Stupid, because it can't be fixed, and you Sonny, are Stupid......

...Here in CenTex, we've had our share of issues with HOAs, but most of them are confined to attempts to keep residents from keeping their spare vehicle(s) in the garage and not on the street, or something to do with how their lawn looks. In almost every case brought before a judge, the HOAs either find their case tossed out the second it hits the bench, or jury trials rule in favor of the homeowner on the grounds that it's really nobody's business what the fuck you do with your home, even if you're only just renting it. The rare cases where the HOAs win are where it involves a homeowner letting his yard go wild and/or has a junker car mounted on cinder blocks, and even then their victory is usually confined to the judge ordering the homeowner to mow his lawn and maintain at least a halfway decent appearance. And as for fines? They're not legal in Texas, and HOAs usually collect them from the clueless through intimidation.

...This is the part - no pun intended - of his story that turns it into a rant from a loony toon. Hams have no specific and/or special privs for the 11-meter band, as that band is a "license free" band.
Which means Part 95 has jurisdiction, while Part 97 lists no privs for the CB frequencies because it doesn't cover use on said band.

Homosexual prostitution is harmless. It should be legal everywhere not just in the backwoods Nevada counties. It's all about sexual freedom. If these tasty young men wish to sell their Adonis bodies it isn't your business to tell them not to. It's a victimless crime similar to beastiality or incest. As an Egalitarian I can see the faux pas in our legal system today. I'm campaigning for freedom.
For Homosexuals, for Beastiality proponents and for Incest participants. It's time to break the chains and give up our life of slavery to the godhead priests Homosexual prostitution, Beastiality and Incest are totally HARMLESS. Incest is actually good for children as long as it is supervised by a participating adult over the age of 21.

If you'll examine both beastiality and necrophilia you will find that besides the antiquated taboos associated with participation they are totally victimless crimes. You cannot insult the dead can you? The body is only a shell, what is wrong with expressing your love in that manner? The world is full of hate and war, we must allow our minds to expand and accept new concepts.

When my father passed away {god rest his soul} I had a fantasy of fondling his scrotum. I was able to make this fantasy a reality and it was good, really good!!! The orgasm I achieved was earth shattering and like none I have experienced since. There's nothing wrong with expressing your love in such a manner, just as there's nothing wrong with expressing your love with a non human entity such as with K-9 entities.

Society makes it dirty or wrong with it's unfounded taboos. Sadly, only egalitarian intellectuals like myself can see through the centuries of deception made possible by the priests of Godhead.

This is a message of hope for children and enlightened individuals everywhere.

If you'll examine both beastiality and necrophilia you will find that besides the antiquated taboos associated with participation they are totally victimless crimes. In some parts of the world incest is considered to be a normal part of the child's sex education. Any harm arises from a power imbalance between the instigator and the other party. More harm is caused by the intervention of social workers and police than is caused by incest.
If force or coercion is involved then it is rape and sexual abuse. That is never all right.

Teenagers can be responsible but Age Of Consent laws take away that responsibility and substitute fear of getting caught. This forces the problem into hiding. It should be brought out into the light and looked at calmly and rationally without all the hysteria displayed by you, and your idiot fellow haters, as you attempt to disrupt support groups with your hatred of differences between people and the attempts of some to solve what they perceive as a problem.

People have said the FCC made a mistake and didn't know what they were doing when they created FRS right exactly on GMRS frequencies and rigjht in the middle of GMRS frequencies.

Wrong!! It wasn't a maistake. Which I will shortly prove.

People said the FCC made a mistake and didn't know what they were doing by never trying to move the 27 mhz CB channels to UHF when 27 mhz got so bad.

Wrong! Back in the late 70's/early 80's when 27 mhz CB was it's worst, the FCC DID try to move it to the UHF band by attempting to create the Consumer Radio Service on or near the Class A CB/GMRS frequencies hoping all new CBers would use those channels thereby limiting CB lids to local areas no matter how much power they tried to use instead of the lids being heard worldwide where the FCC gets complaints about U.S. lids from the rest of the world.

But PRSG fought it all the way, and fortunately was sucessful enough at winning their case to keep the lids transmitting worldwide on 27 mhz for many more decades instead of allowing the FCC to create a service that most new cbers would flock to which would limit most of the lids transmissions to only their local area.

If most people had moved to the new consumer radio service (which never came into being at that time), the lids wouldn't have had anyone to annoy on 27 mhz CB since everyone else would have moved to the uhf "consumer radio service" to avoid the lids. Since that's where the majority of the activity would then be, the lids would follow to the uhf consumer radio service in order to annoy as many people as possible.

Now, the rest of the world doesn't hate that the U.S. has 27 mhz CB. They just hate the lids on it, as do most of the U.S. cbers.

So for all the rest of the world who hated hearing U.S. lids on 27 mhz for decades, you have PRSG to thank for it.

I know that even the MURS users hate both Corwin Moore and PRSG.

The currrent FRS IS the Consumer Radio Service, (which PRSG also fought against and partially lost this time), just under a different name and about twenty years later than it should have been thanks to PRSG.

Since the introduction of FRS, I now hear ONLY ONE lid on 27 mhz CB in my area.

Because the majority of the public has currently fled to FRS to avoid the 27 mhz lids.

And since FRS is now where most of the people are, the lids followed.

Except on UHF, they can't be heard out of their local area no matter how much power they attempt to run.

And if they atttempt to run too much power on UHF, it will be a self-correcting problem in one way or another.

So for everyone in the whole world who hated having all those lids on 27 mhz CB for decades, you all have PRSG to thank for it.

Otherwise the lids would have moved to UHF CB long ago.

All you have to do is look at today's FRS to see that that is true. They usually flock to where they hear the most people.

That's obviously why the one lid in my area who still has only a CB has chosen channel 19, the truckers' channel. to promote his liddiness on.

Even MURS users hate both Corwin Moore and PRSG.

And for good reason, but that's a subject for another post.

PSRG is the Personal Service Radio Group.... It is the Lobbing Org. for the GPRS (General Personal Radio Service) that shares the old Class A CB Radio Frequencies with the FRS (Family Radio Service)...

I am neither. Funny how you think I must be one or the other. I hope this doesn't make you feel bad but I am asian.
Also why do I need to explain why bush was a bad president for america or why you dislike blacks and obama who if you are white is half white just like you. Listen racism exists and is it better than it was yes I guess so but there are many closeted racists like yourself. Now Merry Christmas to all and to all a good night...

16. Ham Radio...
Amateur radio operators enjoy personal (and often worldwide) wireless communications with each other and are able to support their communities with emergency and disaster communications if necessary, while increasing their personal knowledge of electronics and radio theory. However, proliferation of the Internet and its popularity among youth has caused the decline of amateur radio.
In the past five years alone, the number of people holding active ham radio licenses has dropped by 50,000, even though Morse Code is no longer a requirement.

So, capitalizing every word will some how make CB radio operators realize your'e serious? And what are the odds that the CB trouble makers out there read the usenet list for CB?

You remind me of the guy who got crappy service at McDonalds, so he walked into the laundromat and loudly demanded a refund.

Kinda like the guy who paid for a new lawn and two years later got crab grass and grubs.

"Hey assclown, you didn't get the maintenance package."

Or the guy who paid for snow plowing service and his parking lot never got plowed when the first big snow fell.
